

Kate Godfrey

Print/ Online

DEADLINE Breaking Hollywood News Since 2006 FOLLOW US: f t v i g

TV | FILM | AWARDSLINE | BOX OFFICE | BIZ | THEATER | INTL | REVIEWS | OBITS | VIDEO | EVENTS | FESTIVALS | INSIDER | HBO FYC | NEWS ALERTS

HOME / TV / BREAKING NEWS

Amazon Pilots Shoplifting Comedy 'Lifted' Starring Ivy Wolk, Veronica Taylor, Kate Godfrey & Annie Marie Elliot From Liza Mandelup, Mary Bronstein & A24

By Peter White December 7, 2022 12:48pm

1 COMMENTS

Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, Email, +

EXCLUSIVE: Amazon is exploring the world of teenage girls and shoplifting in its latest comedy pilot.

The streamer has ordered and shot half-hour comedy pilot Lifted starring Ivy Wolk, Veronica Taylor, Kate Godfrey and Annie Marie Elliot.

The project comes from Jawline director Liza Mandelup and Yeast director Mary Bronstein, who have co-created it and write and exec produce. Mandelup will also direct with Heidi Schreck, a Nurse Jackie writer whose Broadway play What the Constitution Means to Me aired on Amazon, exec producing.

A24 is producing with Amazon Studios.

The pilot explores the lives of four geographically, socio-economically, and racially diverse American teenage girls united by an online community built around shoplifting. A commentary on identity and how we communicate now, Lifted follows these young, awkwardly funny characters as they attempt to find themselves, form relationships, and discover their power and purpose.

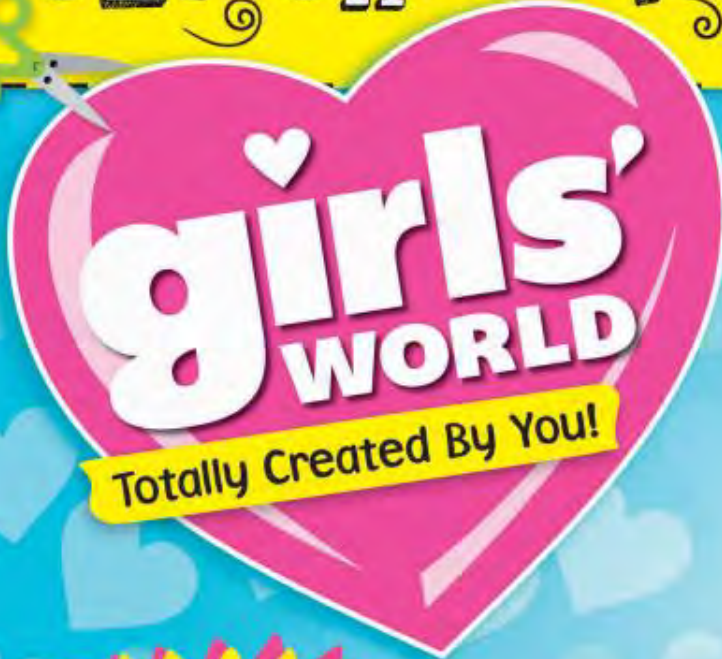

Wolk is best known for her role on Freeform's Everything's Gonna Be Okay and also appeared in the Judd Apatow film The Bubble. Taylor recently starred as Bobbi in the second season of the hit HBO series Euphoria. Godfrey has starred in Nickelodeon series Warped! and Side Hustle. Elliot starred in Eddie Alcazar and Stephen Soderbough's Perfect and opposite Tanzyn Crawford in Pocketshock.

Wolk is represented by Paradigm, Avalon Management and Brecheen Fedlman Breimer Silver Thompson. Taylor is represented by Paradigm and Industry Entertainment. Godfrey is repped by A3 Artists Agency, Schuller Talent Management and Darren M. Trattner of Jackoway Austen Tyerman. Elliot is repped by Innovative Artists, Gang, Tyre, Ramer, Brown & Passman, Inc. and Karli Doumanis at Zero Gravity Management.

Mandelup is repped by CAA and Ramo Law. Bronstein is repped by CAA, 2AM, and Yorn Levine. Schreck is repped by UTA, Curate, and Schreck Rose Dapello Adams Berlin & Dunham

GET CRAFTY!

- ♥ Make cool picture frames ♥
- ✿ Learn to draw fun stuff ✿
- ★ Design your own outfit ★

SO EMBARRASSING!
READERS SHARE THEIR STORIES!

Click to add text
Click to add txt

COOL TOY ALERT:

SPONSORED

LEGO® Friends
Tree-Planting Vehicle

Find out more inside!

BE YOURSELF
— NO MATTER WHAT!

Stay true to you with help from Kate Godfrey!

Make rainbow
pancakes!

QUIZ: WHAT KIND OF GENIUS ARE YOU?

In for Spring:
Flower Power Fashion!

HOW TO BE YOURSELF

— No Matter What!

Nickelodeon star Kate Godfrey's giving her best advice!

TORIN YELAND/NICKELODEON. © 2011 VIACOM INTERNATIONAL, INC. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. BILL MOSENFEL/NICKELODEON. SHUTTERSTOCK. (2) NATCHAPON L. SHUTTERSTOCK. NEW AFRICA/SHUTTERSTOCK. ANTHONY HARVEY/SHUTTERSTOCK

People probably tell you to be yourself all the time, and it's great advice.

But it's also totally normal not to feel comfortable in your own skin. If you think it's better to fit in than it is to stand out, we're here to tell you that isn't the case — and so is Kate Godfrey!

EMBRACE WHAT MAKES YOU UNIQUE

There's one big thing that makes Kate different than most kids her age. "I think my job makes me unique," she says. "I feel like being an actor is very different." But she also has several interesting hobbies. "I love painting," she tells us. "I love photography and I like to play the piano." You probably don't enjoy all the same things Kate does, but you have your own likes, interests and dreams. Those are the things you should be spending time focusing on, no matter what anyone else thinks about it.

DON'T WORRY ABOUT FITTING IN

When we asked Kate if she ever felt different than the rest of her peers, she was quick to answer: "All the time!" For a while, she tried to hide those parts of herself. "Growing up, I always thought it was cool to fit in and to wear what everyone else was wearing." But now she's learned it's okay — even better than okay — to stand out. "I think that the coolest thing you can do is just have your own personality," Kate smiles. "I don't want to be trendy. I don't want to be like everyone else. I want to do something that no one else does."

GET TO KNOW YOURSELF

If you're having trouble figuring out if you actually like something or if you're just doing it because that's what everyone else expects, Kate can relate. "I used to have a really hard time formulating my own opinions sometimes," she says. She thinks taking some alone time once in a while can really help with that. "I think spending alone time gives you the chance to form your own opinions," she shares. "I started having a healthy amount of alone time, then I was able to see what I actually like, what my passions were and what hobbies I like."

LIVE YOUR BEST LIFE

Discovering what makes you authentically you is one thing, but having the confidence to show that to the world is something else. If you're ever having a hard time with it, remember Kate's words. "You're not going to have as much fun if you're pretending to be someone else," Kate explains. "Being yourself — it's just so important for your happiness!"

How playing Ruby has helped Kate be herself!

Kate's Warped! character inspires her!
 "One thing I've gained from playing Ruby is definitely a lot of confidence," Kate tells Girls' World. "It could be that I'm acting on this TV show, but also because Ruby is unapologetically loud and herself. If someone doesn't like her personality, then she just moves on."

BEST DAY EVER!

She's telling us about her big plans!

A GOOD START

"First, I would wake up and get matcha."

COMFY CHOICE

"I would be wearing a sweatshirt and sweatpants."

SUNNY DESTINATION

"I would have to drive to the beach!"

ESSENTIAL SUPPLIES

"I would get all of my painting supplies, so I could paint when I got there."

GOOD COMPANY

"I'd want to bring along my childhood friend, Hope!"

PERFECT PLAYLIST

"Hope and I would listen to Harry Styles together. We love him, so it'd be next level craziness!"

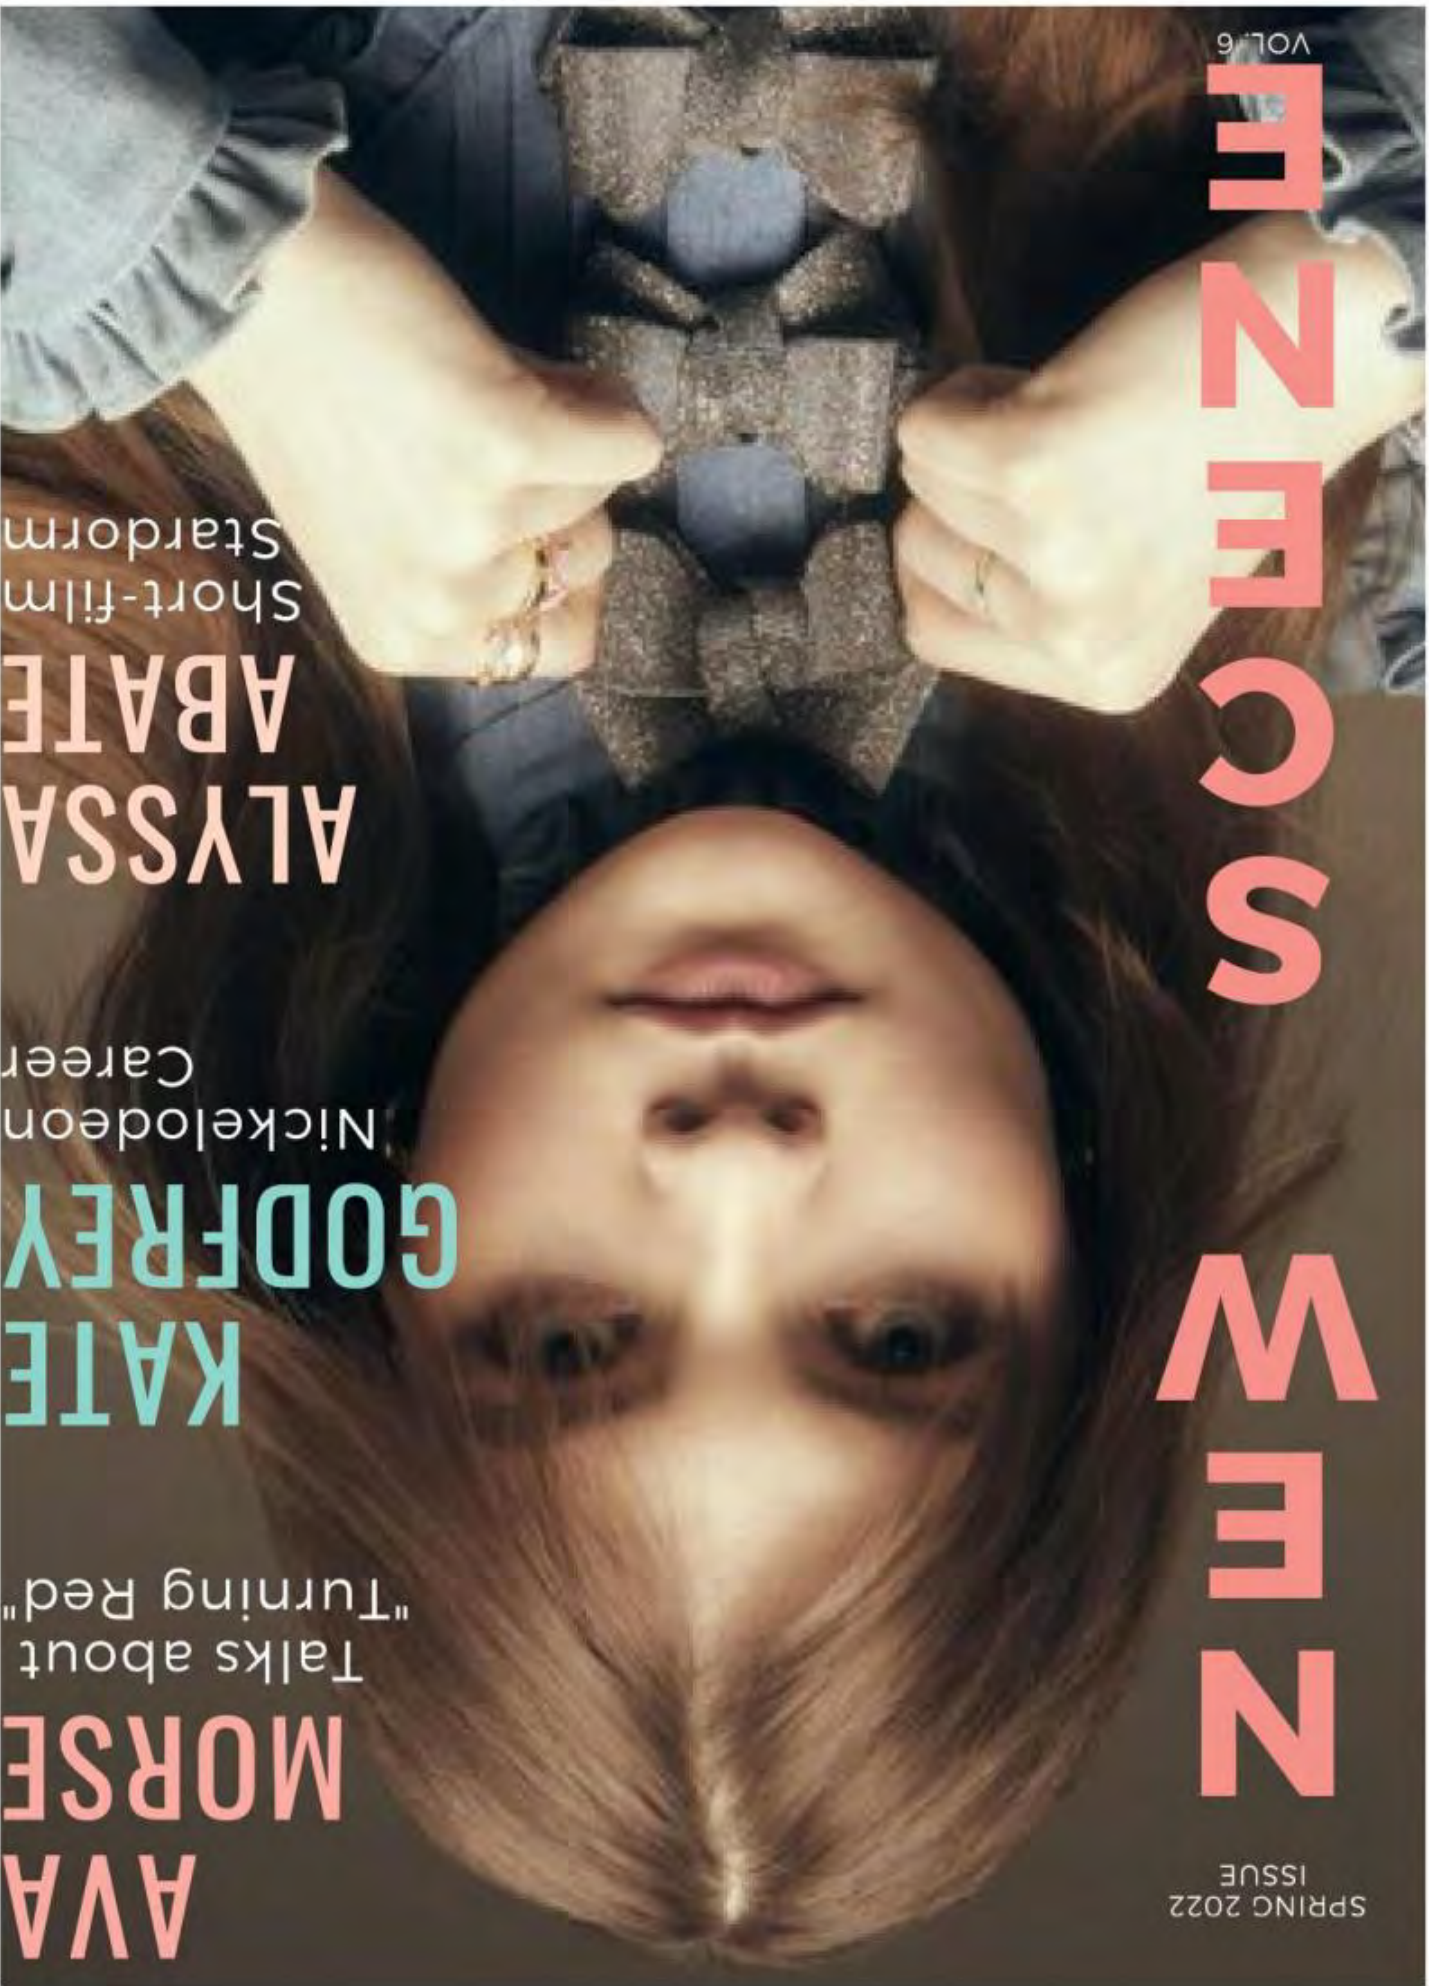

BEACH TREAT

"I'd want froyo. I switch up my flavor choice every time!"

MEMORY MAKING

"I'd bring my film camera to take pictures!"

WOMEN

WOMEN

SPRING 2022
ISSUE

VOL. 6

AVA

MORSE

Talks about
"Turning Red"

KATE

GODFREY

Nickelodeon
Career

ALYSSA

ABATE

Short-film
Stardom

Kate Godfrey: Young Actress Changing The Scene

When did you first realize that you wanted to become an actress?

K: "I first realized I wanted to be an actress when I was 8 years old. I played a cardboard fork in Beauty and the Beast at my local community theater in Arizona. I absolutely loved it, I did all the musicals that theater did until I was too old to participate."

Tell us about your amazing new character as 'Ruby' in Nickelodeon's 'Warped!'

K: "Ruby is so funny, she is always doing something completely random and getting the gang into trouble. I love playing Ruby because she has such a large personality, which I think is really fun to watch on screen."

Do you have any funny stories on the set with your amazing co-stars?

K: "Everyday we were doing something funny. The four of us (Chris, Ariana, Anton, and myself) would sneak into the studio's lobby to get candy. We also played basketball during every break. Chris's mom bought us a basketball hoop so we could play Around the World. We even had a trailer decorating contest, and each tried to decorate our trailers the best. We had a lot of fun off and on screen while filming season 1."

You also played several roles in Nick's "All That". What was that experience like?

K: "Being on All That was wonderful. It really feels like I am part of this fraternity of All That cast members now. It is definitely a challenging show, but I learned almost everything I know on the All That set. I wouldn't trade that experience for the world."

A new member of the Nickelodeon family, what is your all-time favorite Nick show?

K: "When I was little I was wildly obsessed with Dora. I cut my bangs to look like Dora, I had Dora wallpaper in my room, and dressed as her for Halloween. So probably Dora. I will also always love iCarly and Victorious."

How have you balanced work and school life?

K: "Balancing work and school is definitely challenging. I go to a college-prep school in LA, so it has been a tricky balance with school work. Luckily my teachers at school are super supportive and lenient. I also have amazing set teachers to help with the hard stuff while I am on set. I try to stay organized and on top of things."

If you could star in a TV show with any actress, who would it be and why?

K: "100% Kate Mckinnon. Everything she does makes me laugh so hard. I would have the time of my life starring in a tv show with her."

When not acting, what are some of your favorite things to do?

K: "I love photography, painting, and playing the piano. I am usually pretty busy, so it is nice to have hobbies that allow me to wind down."

Where can we follow your amazing journey?

K: "You can follow my on Instagram @kategodfrey."

Kate Godfrey on Balancing The Double Pan Scale

By Willow Bullington

*A double-pan balance is a scale that has 2 pans that are balanced against each other. The scale functions like a see-saw, with each of the 2 pans attached to a beam over a centered pivot point. The two pans are codependent on one another, the pans move in conjunction to one another, originally used to balance coins. We have seen the dynamic between the two pans evolve with our culture. Work-Life Balance being one of the most striking examples, arguably most working adults can attest to the struggle of “leaving their work at work”. With the growth of the internet, and emergence of social media in the workplace we can see that now more than ever we need to balance this scale. And because Our Era caters to mostly, well, Our era many of us do not work full time jobs. For most of us our work life balance is a school-life balance. And speaking for myself and likely many others, as social media grows, especially post-pandemic, balancing this scale can feel comparable to summiting everest. It is almost inconceivable to conceptualize having to balance high-school, schoolwork, spending time with your family, spending time with friends, AP Classes, Red Carpet Appearances, interviews, thousands of fans, late night appearances, and filming a full season of a television show.*

But that is exactly what Kate Godfrey does, and she does it with a commendable amount of maturity, and humility.

From a young age Godfrey felt a calling to perform, first tasting the spotlight playing a fork in Beauty and The Beast at her local theater. And from the moment she stepped off that stage she felt a calling to perform. Godfrey's innate ability to entertain coupled with her diligence on and off camera makes her a name to know. Godfrey states that still she "gets that thrill stepping onto set and while it is different than performing in a theater hall there is nothing like performing" and that feeling is what pushes her along to continue to strive for more. While her roots may be planted in the mezzanine, Godfrey garnered much attention for her role on Nickelodeon's All That. The show is a reboot of the 90's kids sketch comedy show, the show was deemed Americas #1 Kids Sketch Comedy, setting the expectations for the reboot through the roof. "I definitely was nervous to fill their [previous cast] shoes" Godfrey describes "but once the show aired the pressure subsided". The show premiered in early 2019, and production was brought to a halt due to the pandemic.

I am sure many of you remember March of 2020 when it felt like everything stopped. We have all seen the toll this pandemic has taken on our culture. However Godfrey recalls that time stating "first it was a week, then two weeks, then a month", that as the uncertainty grew so did Godfrey's desire to get back on set, and continue performing. Godfrey's ability to shift her outlook and persevere despite the circumstances speaks to her maturity despite her age.

One of Godfrey's most striking qualities is her composure, while only spending an hour on zoom with her. The 18-year-old explained she had taken an AP exam that day. Which is a daunting task for any full-time student, I cannot imagine walking the tightrope of full-time academics and rising into the spotlight. Godfrey explained to me that "I was fortunate enough to have a relatively normal high school experience", corroborating that while she would miss class every once in a while she got to experience a lot of traditional high school. Godfrey described that just that just before she sat down for the interview she was finishing her AP psych exam, and the weekend before she had gone to prom.

Yet, Godfrey describes that this road less traveled she has chosen to take is not without obstacles, she says it can often be hard to resist the temptation to “engage with negative comments”. It is called the world wide web for a reason, millions of people can give unsolicited input, advice, and opinions on complete strangers content oftentimes seems insurmountable. In this age where the internet is only growing, this task is often a teenager's Everest, subtracting the spotlight from the equation almost every teenager can empathize with Godfrey. Constant pressure to perform, academically, in sports, in theater, in whatever your prerogative may be, can make or break many teens mental health, however Godfrey's wise words and optimism serve as a light in the often dark world of social media.

Photos by Mike Anderson

Styled by Ariana Velazquez

Makeup by Courtney Hart

Hair by Daniel Paller

Produced by Lucy Ivey

Vanity Teen

INTERVIEW

Kate Godfrey: taking it day by day

Kate Godfrey is the fresh face of comedy. This multifaceted actress has been taking the comedy world seriously, and we cannot express enough how glad we are to see what she has been doing so far. Most of us saw her for the first time in The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon, but this time, miss Godfrey comes with the hilarious revival of Nickelodeon's legendary sketch comedy series All That, and the singular and funny TV show Warped!

Therefore, we invite you to come closer to know Kate Godfrey better with this exclusive interview for Vanity Teen.

A strength I didn't know I had VT: All That is like a dream come true for any actor since this show allowed us to know great artists like Kenan Thompson and Kel Mitchell. So, how has it been for you to be part of this iconic Nickelodeon comedy series?

KG: Filming All That taught me so many skills that I couldn't learn anywhere else. It was definitely an intimidating job, especially because we had such big shoes to fill. But I am so grateful to be able to be part of something so iconic.

It is almost like you are in a sorority or a fraternity; I will be bonded with those kids for life.

VT: Another great news is that recently your new show Warped was released. What can you tell us about it?

KG: Warped is a new sitcom about teens working in a comic book store. It is filled with slapstick comedy as well as vibrant characters. In every episode, Ruby, my character, gets into some sort of trouble.

VT: Thinking about the roles you have been playing so far, what do you think comedy has brought to your life?

KG: I think comedy has brought me a lot of confidence. Even though I am usually doing something so odd that it is almost embarrassing, I seem to have found a strength I didn't know I had.

I am pretty shy in person, so being able to play really outgoing characters has been totally beneficial to me.

Taking it day by day

VT: Let us get to know you a little better. So, how do you manage to continue with your formal education while working in the media?

KG: I am currently a senior in High School at a school in LA. I have always tried to prioritize my education, but as I get older, I have realized that my work is really important to me and calculus is not.

I have applied to a few colleges, so at the moment, I am just taking it day by day. If I went to college, I would love to study business entertainment or something similar to become a producer of some sort.

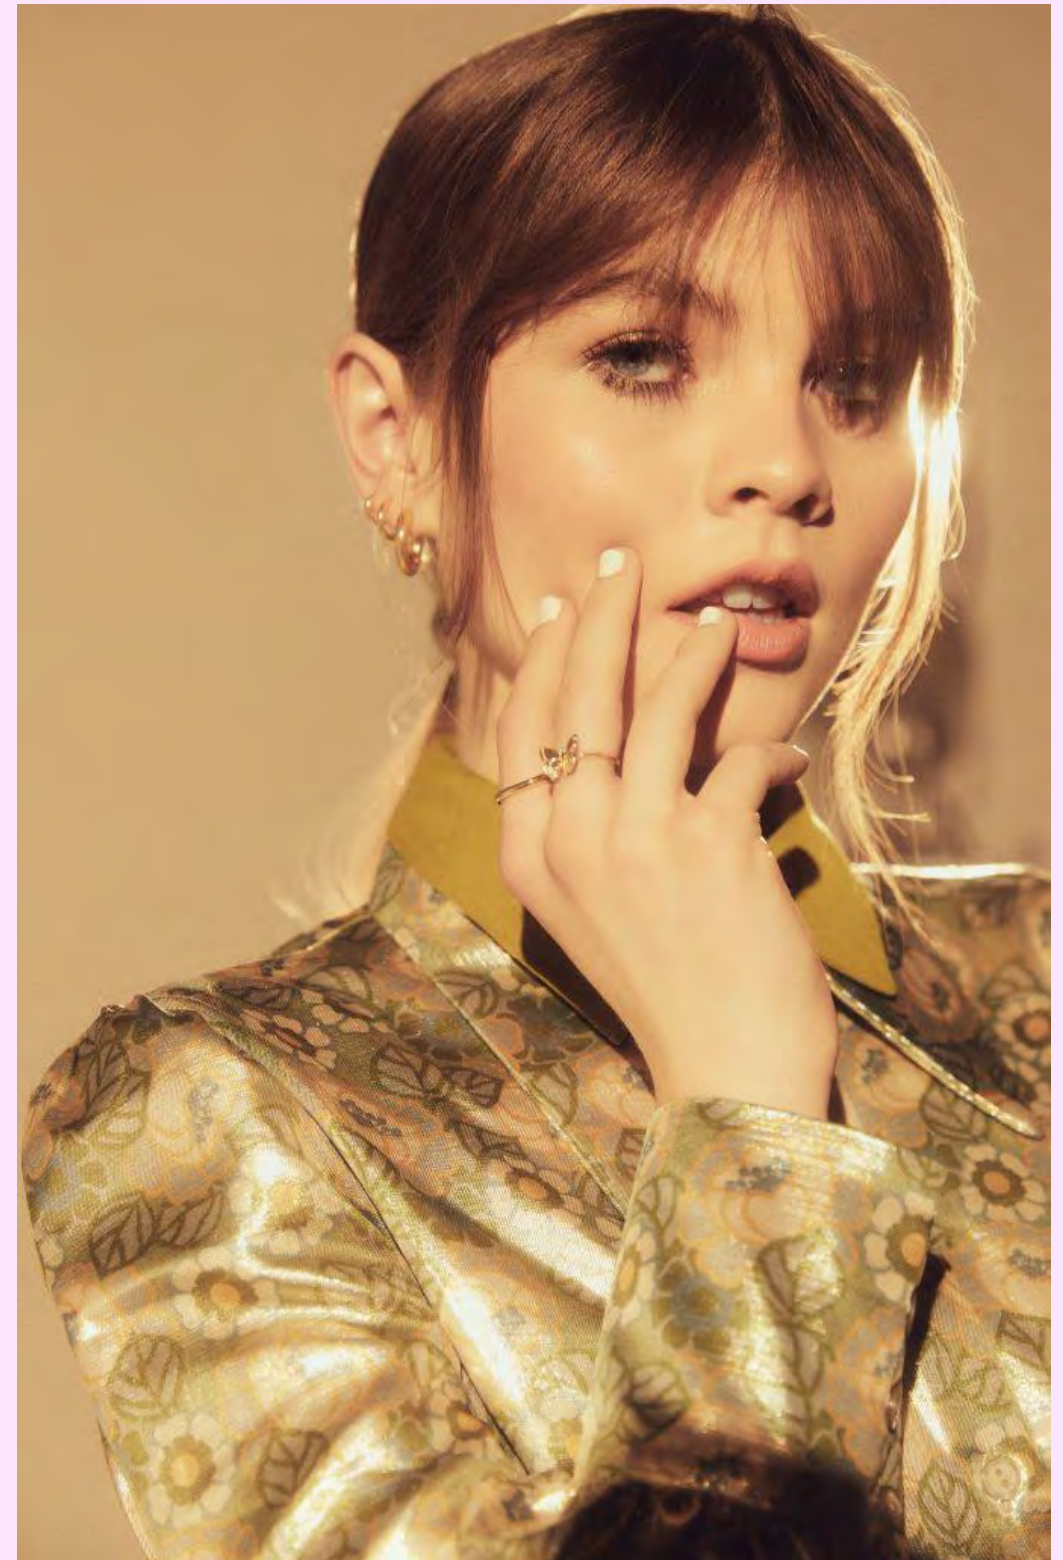

VT: Usually, what do you do before going live on a stage or starting filming?

KG: I usually have a huge breakfast and some coffee or matcha before filming. Being on set for long periods can get super overstimulating, so I usually just relax or listen to music in my dressing room.

I am a huge advocate for alone time.

VT: When not working, which other activities do you enjoy doing the most?

KG: I love painting, playing piano, and baking. I recently started to use oil paint, and while almost everything I own is stained with it, I really enjoy it.

It is a weird time in life

VT: We also know you like to give back to society by collaborating with hospitals and associations dedicated to promoting awareness about autism. Therefore, why do you consider these acts of kindness relevant for the youth?

KG: I think this is relevant to the youth because it is important to be educated about different situations occurring in the world. One of the first steps in normalizing autism is by educating kids.

VT: Which plans do you have for the future?

KG: I have a rough draft of what I want my future to look like. I would love to become a writer or producer of some sort: possibly for sitcoms. I also love the idea of directing or being a cast member of SNL. I want to continue comedy but also introduce more dramatic roles. Whatever I end up doing, I know I want to stay within the entertainment industry.

VT: What message would you like to share with those who find joy in your work, despite everything that happens in the world?

KG: I mean, it is a cool thought to think that people find joy in my work.

I guess I would just say thank you. It makes me so happy that you like it.

It is a weird time in life. I hope everyone is hanging in there.

VT: Anything else you would like to share with Vanity Teen?

KG: Thank you for interviewing me!

Before we go

Kate Godfrey embodies some of the most precious values of current youth; she is a welcoming person who knows what she wants and lives with the determination to pursue her goals one step at a time with humility and hard work. I love that she is not afraid to expose her insecurities and use them as an element to reinforce what she does for a living.

As she said in the interview, current times might be weird, but let us stay focused on the things we love and never forget that there is always a space for comedy in our lives.

If you want to keep in touch with Kate Godfrey, follow her on social media @kategodfrey.

Love all humankind!

Kate Godfrey Talks Nickelodeon Series, "Warped!"

From acting in her local community theater to starring in a Nickelodeon production, Kate Godfrey is someone you're about to see everywhere.

You star as Ruby in "Warped!" Take us through the process of getting into character for this role. Do you relate to Ruby in any ways?

I love Ruby. I think she would be a fun friend to have. She is definitely a unique character. I honestly don't really know. I think Ruby is my dream on-screen character. So, in that sense, we are very similar.

What's it like to be part of a Nickelodeon production?

Working for Nickelodeon has been great. I have been working with them for about 4 years now, and they always make me feel loved and appreciated. Everyone knows of Nickelodeon, so it is always fun to see people's reactions when I say that I work for them.

You were the lead in the reboot of "All That." What was it like being a part of this project following such an iconic show?

All 8 of us knew we had big shoes to fill when rebooting something as iconic as "All That." We were working so hard to make the original fans of the show proud. I absolutely loved working on All That, it was truly my playground. I learned pretty much everything I know from that show.

If you could direct your own movie and star as the lead, what type of movie would it be?

If I could direct and star in my own movie it would be a romantic comedy. My co-stars would be Andrew Garfield, Harry Styles, and Jacob Elordi. Obviously.

What advice would you give to aspiring actors and actresses?

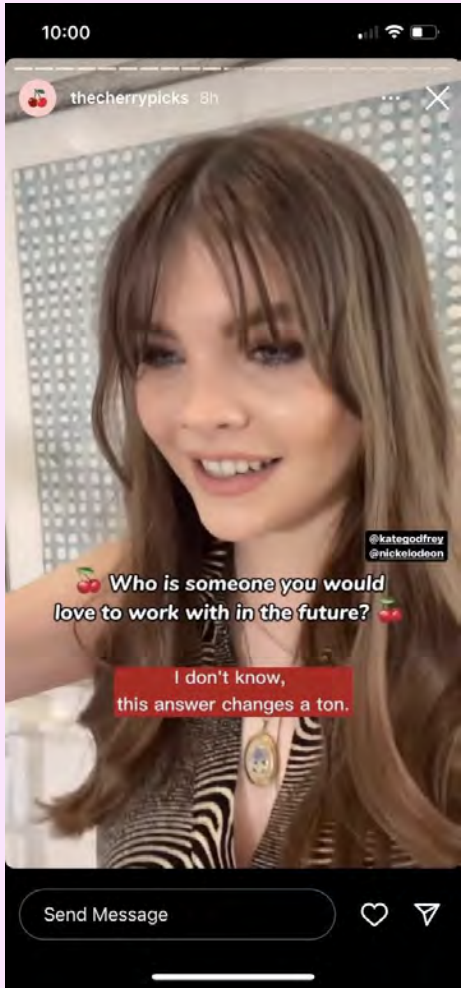

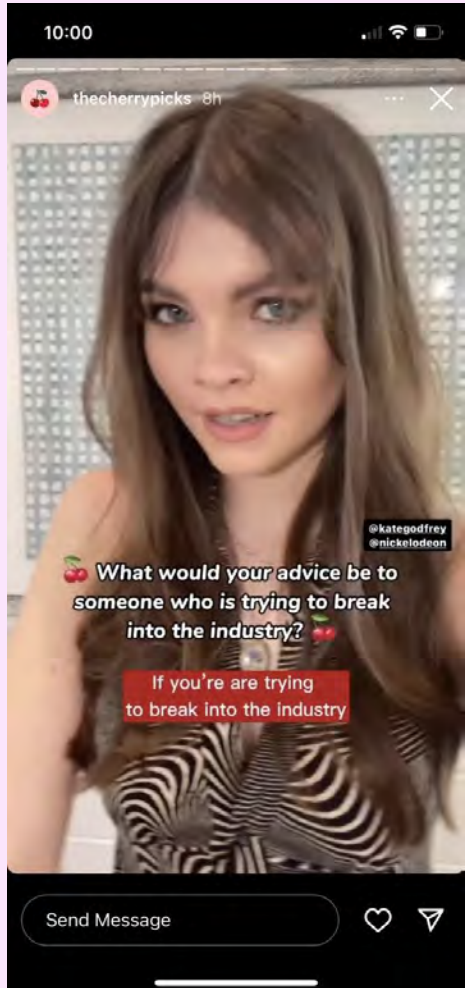

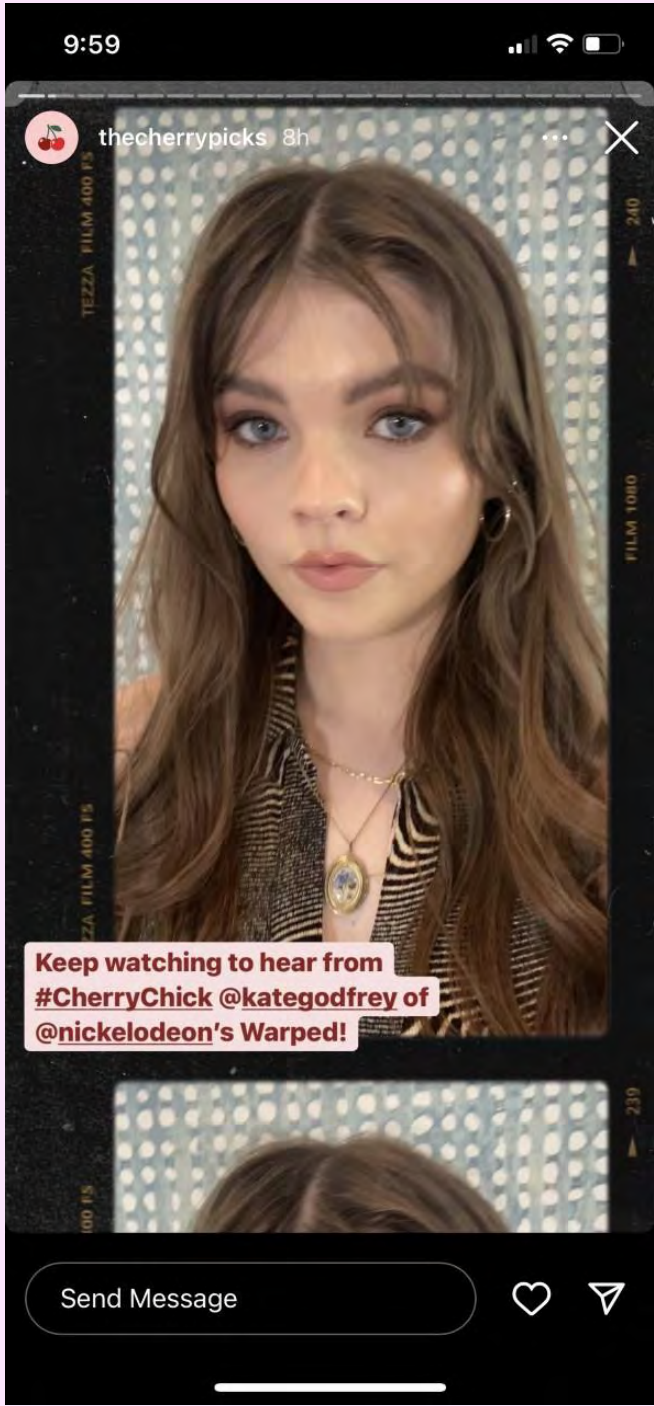

I would say that it is a ton of work. You have to really love acting. Make sure you are entering the industry for the right reasons. But it is also a dream job. You get to make people feel emotions, which is really cool. I would say believe in yourself and keep going.

What's a fun fact about yourself, and why did you decide to become an actress?

A fun fact about myself is that I have never had a goldfish for longer than 2 months.

I decided to become an actress when I was 8 years old and was cast as a fork in "Beauty and the Beast." I wore a cardboard fork costume. I was really shy growing up, so performing was a way for me to not be.

N

NYOTA Magazine

Kate Godfrey

by Carol Wright | Mar 3, 2022 | Culture | 0 comments

Interview by Carol Wright | Photographer: Jonny Marlow | Styling: Enrique Melendez | Hair: Nancilee Santos | Makeup: Courtney Hart

We got to chat with actress Kate Godfrey about her role as Ruby in the new Nickelodeon show Warped! and how her time on All That helped prepare her for the role.

Was there a particular movie or television show that sparked your interest in acting?

I don't know if there was a particular show or movie, I always just liked them all. In everything I watched I was fascinated by the creative side and behind the scenes. The idea that every television episode is not real life but a made-up story, was fascinating to me.

Tell our readers about Warped! What drew you to the role of Ruby?

I was drawn to Ruby because she is a mix of all my characters I played on All That. She has many aspects of her personality; Ruby is my dream comedic character. I can experiment with jokes and make any choice I want, and still be "in character."

Are there similarities between you and your character Ruby?

I go back and forth on this question. In some ways, we are the exact same, and in some ways, we are polar opposites. I am much quieter than Ruby is. I admire that Ruby is unapologetically herself, she doesn't question any social situation. But we also have very similar types of humor. A lot of the things Ruby says truly do make me laugh.

How have you and your castmates bonded off of set to create a chemistry that is shown on screen?

The four of us all came in with open minds, and now we are genuinely great friends. When you are on a sitcom, the cast definitely has something to bond over. We all went to dinner and talked about ourselves. We actually clicked right off the bat. After the initial awkward hangout, it was so easy and fun.

Do you feel that working on All That helped prepare you for your role in Warped!?

Without All That I would have no idea what I am doing. That show taught me everything I know. I absolutely loved working on All That. It was a great training ground for young comedians. It was literally my playground. I am so lucky to have that under my belt.

What advice do you have for aspiring actors?

I definitely would say to keep taking classes and keep auditioning. You usually book the biggest job right when you feel like you want to give up. But if you love acting, then eventually something will stick.

Outfit details for the look in the feature image: Jacket: Kim Hekim, Top: Simon Miller, Jeans: Zara, Boots: Jeffrey Campbell, Jewelry: David Yurman

5 THINGS ABOUT KATE GODFREY

The "All That!" co-star headlines her own series, "Warped!," premiering Jan. 20 on Nickelodeon.

1

"I wrote my college essay on the brilliant masterpiece that is pineapple pizza."

2

"I absolutely love sketch comedy and want to be a cast member of 'SNL' at some point in my life. I currently write sketches for Nickelodeon that I can star in and direct."

3

"I actually think that some hairless cats are cute. Similar to pineapple pizza, they are also underrated and overlooked."

4

"I don't love the smell of roses. I feel like that is deemed to be the best of the best, but I just don't see it like that."

5

"I love art history and visiting museums. My favorite painting at the moment is 'Irises' by Van Gogh."

Tobin Yelland/Nickelodeon

Thru on t
new
'A

By LAUF

C

It," is pe
Israeli s

"I hav trum," B few year thinking becom
of these
And I w story an the Auti
you see tle boy."

a very p ing abou
I saw th

"As W on Ama Glassm: eck), ar
twentys
the auti:
to keep world a help fro
(Chris F
Mante (Sosie
Con

to be j other j of intel proble
wher is :

le w
h
1

THU, 20 JANUARY 2022 AT 6:30 PM Tweet Like Share 12

Kate Godfrey Opens Up About New Series 'Warped!' - Exclusive Interview!

Kate Godfrey is sharing her excitement for her brand new show Warped!

The 18-year-old actress can be seen starring as Ruby in the Nickelodeon comedy.

Ruby is an outgoing and impulsive pop culture nerd whose encyclopedic knowledge of comic books makes her irreplaceable as the newest hire at Warped!

Kate was first announced as part of the cast back in March 2021.

Warped! follows Milo (Anton Starkman), the beloved head geek at a popular strip-mall comic book shop, Warped!, finds his world disrupted when his boss hires a new employee. With the quirky and excitable Ruby (Godfrey) now on the payroll, the two form an unlikely alliance to create the world's greatest graphic novel.

Joining them in their adventures are Darby (Ariana Molkara), a smart and fashion-forward friend who is always there to lend a hand, and Hurley (Christopher Martinez), a neighboring pizza shop employee who spends his time coming up with brilliant culinary creations.

Just Jared Jr Exclusive Interview With Kate Godfrey

JJJ: Can you tell us about your character?

KG: Ruby is energetic and ready to take on any challenge head first. She is unapologetically Ruby, which is something I really admire about her.

JJJ: Are there many similarities between you and Ruby?

KG: Ruby and I are extremely similar. The only difference is that Ruby is a lot more extroverted than I am. Ruby is not afraid to embarrass herself; she almost looks forward to it, I definitely cannot relate to that. She is also very physical; always moving, jumping, climbing, falling, you name it. The amount of bruises I get playing Ruby is crazy.

JJJ: What has your experience been like working on this new show?

AG: My experience working on Warped! has been wonderful. The environment we have created on set is so positive and uplifting. I think the entire cast and crew genuinely enjoys working on the show. Everyone is excited to show up to work every day, which makes me so happy.

JJJ: What is your favorite part about Warped?

KG: My favorite part about Warped is working with Anton Starkman, Arianna Molkara, and Chris Martinez. We go to dinner every Friday night after filming all day. We all enjoy spending time together, which makes our jobs even more fun. We have a special bond that only really comes when you are on television together.

JJJ: What do you hope fans take away from watching the show?

KG: I hope they laugh!!! Almost every line of Warped is a punchline, thanks to our show creators Kevin, Kevin, and Heath. We have a great time making it, so I hope the viewers see that.

JJJ: Do you have a favorite BTS moment so far?

KG: My favorite BTS moment was probably working with live animals. Weirdly enough, we have tons of live animals on Warped, so I have encountered some crazy animals in the last few months. When there is a "wild" animal on set, everyone has to be really quiet so it doesn't get scared and run all around our set. When 150+ people are all being quiet and have their eyes on a zoo animal, it is pretty funny. You never know what the animals are going to do. I also really love performing physical comedy, which is something I get to do a lot in this show.

JJJ: The show is centered in a comic book store. Are you a huge comic fan?

KG: I'm actually bad at knowing anything pop culture related ever, it is actually pretty funny. Anton has tried to get me into comics and superheroes. I am starting by making my way through the Avengers series right now. That is the biggest difference between me and Ruby: I know nothing about pop culture.

JJJ: If so, what's your favorite comic?

KG: "Diary of a Wimpy Kid"

JJJ: Aside from the sketch part, what's the biggest difference between Warped! and your last Nickelodeon show All That?

KG: I think the biggest difference that I have noticed is that I am able to develop and work on a single character rather than a ton of characters at one time. I absolutely adore sketch comedy and love learning the science of it, so it was a new idea to play and develop only one character. It is also a much smaller cast, so we are able to really get to know each other and spend time all together.

JJJ: What did you learn on All That that you were able to bring to Warped!?

KG: All That was the craziest experience of my life. Although I wasn't on set as much as I am for Ruby, it still was craziness. I had so much fun on that show; it was literally my playground. I could play any character I wanted and be whoever I wanted to be. All That is where I found my passion for comedy, which is something I will forever be grateful for. Most of my comedic training is from All That, which I think is really apparent in Warped. When Ruby was presented to me she was described as a mixture of all my All That characters, which I completely agree with.

WARPED!: KATE GODFREY DISCUSSES NICKELODEON SITCOM

written by Conor O'Brien | 9th April 2022

Kate Godfrey chatted about her time on Nickelodeon's All That revival and leading the network's new sitcom, Warped!

You may recognise Kate Godfrey from Nickelodeon's recent All That revival. However, she's now leading a new sitcom Warped!, also on Nickelodeon. The new show was created by Kevin Kopelow and Heath Seifert, also known for their work on the original All That and Disney Channel's Austin and Ally, among others.

Read on below for Kate's full interview with Courageous Nerd. Or, check out the video on our YouTube channel, linked below.

You appeared on the All That revival and now lead your own show, Warped! How have you found working for Nickelodeon and the differences between the shows?

Kate Godfrey: Working on All That versus working on Warped! has been completely different. On All That, there were 8 main cast members. You're not in everything every week, you have your 'buddy'. You guys switch doing these characters. It was so fun. I love sketch comedy so much and being on All That was truly such a learning, wonderful experience for me.

Warped! is just... Anton Starkman and I, we're on set. Sometimes we never leave except for lunch breaks. I love it, it's my passion in life. It's a lot, compared to All That, for sure. I was like, "Woah, this is crazy."

Nickelodeon has produced a long line of hit shows – the original All That, Kenan and Kel, iCarly and Victorious to name a few. Did you have a 'Nickelodeon idol' you looked up to when you were younger?

Kate Godfrey: When I was really little, I was a Dora fanatic. I cut my bangs to look like Dora. At one point, I only knew Spanish because my nanny only spoke Spanish. My mom couldn't communicate with me because I was only speaking Spanish.

When I got a little older, it was definitely more like iCarly or Victorious. You know, the classic staple shows.

As for Warped! – what’s it about? How would you describe the show’s premise and the creative team behind it?

Kate Godfrey: Warped! is Nickelodeon’s new sitcom. It is about a comic-book store and follows Milo, Ruby, Darby and Hurley throughout their adventures in the nerd life. It’s very funny!

From an acting perspective, how different is it playing one character versus several from All That sketches?

Kate Godfrey: I like to think of Ruby as a mixture of all my All That characters. She rambles a lot, like TMI Tammy. The second episode she was almost, like, drunk, I want to say. [Like] ‘Brie, Back From The Dentist.’ She’s very much a mixture of my All That characters. That’s kind of what Kevin, Kevin and Heath [Kay, Kopelow and Seifert, Executive Producers] explained to me.

It’s been weird, having only one character. I love that I can literally make any choice as Ruby and still be in character. She’s so fun and sporadic.

Where can people find you on social media?

Kate Godfrey: Yes, my Instagram is @kategodfrey. That’s pretty much the thing I’m most active on.

In a wider sense, what do you hope to accomplish with the rest of 2022?

Kate Godfrey: Yeah, I hope to do some movies coming up, that’d be fun. I just want to work more on sitcoms and movies. Possibly add some drama, which strays very far from the comedy when working on it. Yeah, we’ll see.

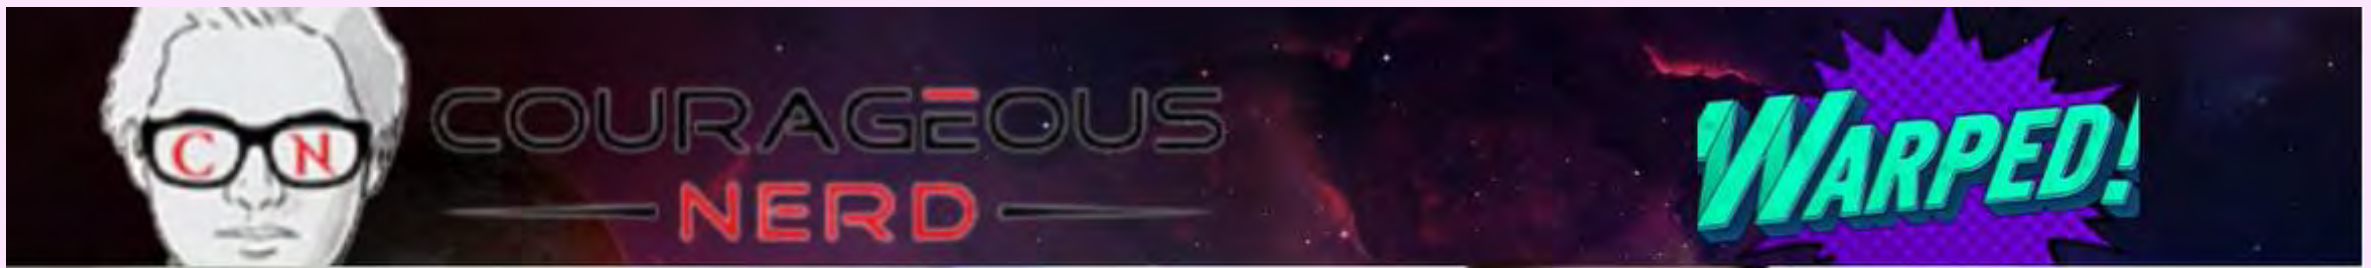

Speaking of ‘Ruby’ would you say she’s similar to other roles you’ve played or even to yourself?

Kate Godfrey: I made a Pinterest board when I first heard about Ruby. I basically pinned everything I thought would be Ruby-esque. Phoebe from Friends was on it, just a lot of clothes that reminded me of her. Hairstyles and animals, even. She’s definitely a mix of everything I wanted her to be and everything Kevin & Heath made her be.

Having done an improv series first and then scripted, do you have as much creative freedom? Or, do you stick to what’s written for each episode of Warped!?

Kate Godfrey: One thing I really love about Kevin, Kevin and Heath is that they really let me have freedom in what I and all the other kids say. If I think something’s funny, I’ll just do it. They’ve made this really safe environment to where I don’t really care if it’s not funny. They’ll be like, “Let’s not do that.” I’ll be like, “Okay, cool.”

I’m constantly doing things and hoping for the best. I’d say there’s a lot of improv, I improv a lot. I want to stick to the script because we want to tell a linear story. But, I think we all add funny little things that we think could be funny.

LIKE AND SUBSCRIBE!

Warped!: Kate Godfrey discusses Nickelodeon sitcom - Interview \(courageousnerd.com\)

Exclusive Interview: Kate Godfrey Chats Warped!

Actress Kate Godfrey is “all that” and then some! The talented young performer first blew audiences away with her starring role in the remake of the '90s sketch comedy, All That. Since then, she's continued to build on that success, landing the lead role in Nickelodeon's Warped!.

In Warped!, Milo (Anton Starkman), the beloved head geek at a popular strip-mall comic book shop, Warped!, finds his world disrupted when his boss hires a new employee. With the quirky and excitable Ruby (Kate Godfrey) now on the payroll, the two form an unlikely alliance to create the world's greatest graphic novel. Joining them in their adventures are Darby (Ariana Molkara), a smart and fashion-forward friend who is always there to lend a hand, and Hurley (Christopher Martinez), a neighboring pizza shop employee who spends his time coming up with brilliant culinary creations.

Pop Culturalist was lucky enough to speak with Kate about Warped!.

PC: To start, could you introduce us to the series and your character?

Kate: Warped! is Nickelodeon's new sitcom. It first airs on Thursday, January 20th, but you can watch it every Thursday at 7:30/6:30c. I play Ruby. She's super fun to play. She's very exciting. I think she's going to be very loved by the fan base. She's overall just a spazball.

PC: What was it about this particular project and character that attracted you to it?

Kate: Ruby is a mixture of all the characters that I used to play on All That. She's really my dream character because I can do anything in the role. I could make any choice or say anything improvised, and it would still be considered as Ruby in character. It's my dream role. I love it.

PC: How did you prepare to step into Ruby's shoes? Which of Ruby's relationships was your favorite to explore in Season 1?

Kate: When I first heard about Ruby, I made a Pinterest board and basically pinned anything that reminded me of Ruby. I pinned anything, from hairstyles to baby goats (because she reminds me of a goat). I created what I wanted to wear. All of those things. It was fun.

PC: How similar or different would you say you are to Ruby?

Kate: I'd say I go back and forth on whether I'm similar or not. I feel like I'm pretty similar. She's more of a super exaggerated sitcom character, which I'm not. I'm quite introverted. I can be shy, whereas Ruby isn't. But ultimately, I think our personalities are pretty similar.

PC: The cast has such great chemistry. How did you all build that bond?

Kate: Right away, we knew that if we wanted this to be a good show it would be helpful if we were really close, so we were all on the same page. We were like, "Let's do as many things as we can together. Let's be really closed," and it worked. It was so natural, and sometimes we were with each other for fifteen hours a day. We would work all day and then we'd go get dinner and hang out with each other for four hours after. It was super organic. It was nice. We have a really nice environment.

PC: The show looks like so much fun. Do you have a favorite episode or scene that you're really excited for your fans to see?

Kate: I do have a favorite scene! It's hard to say because there are so many good ones. Ruby is such a little oddball, which I love. You'll have to watch and see because every episode she's doing something new and crazy and acting in some way or impersonating a random person. You'll have to watch every Thursday night on Nick.

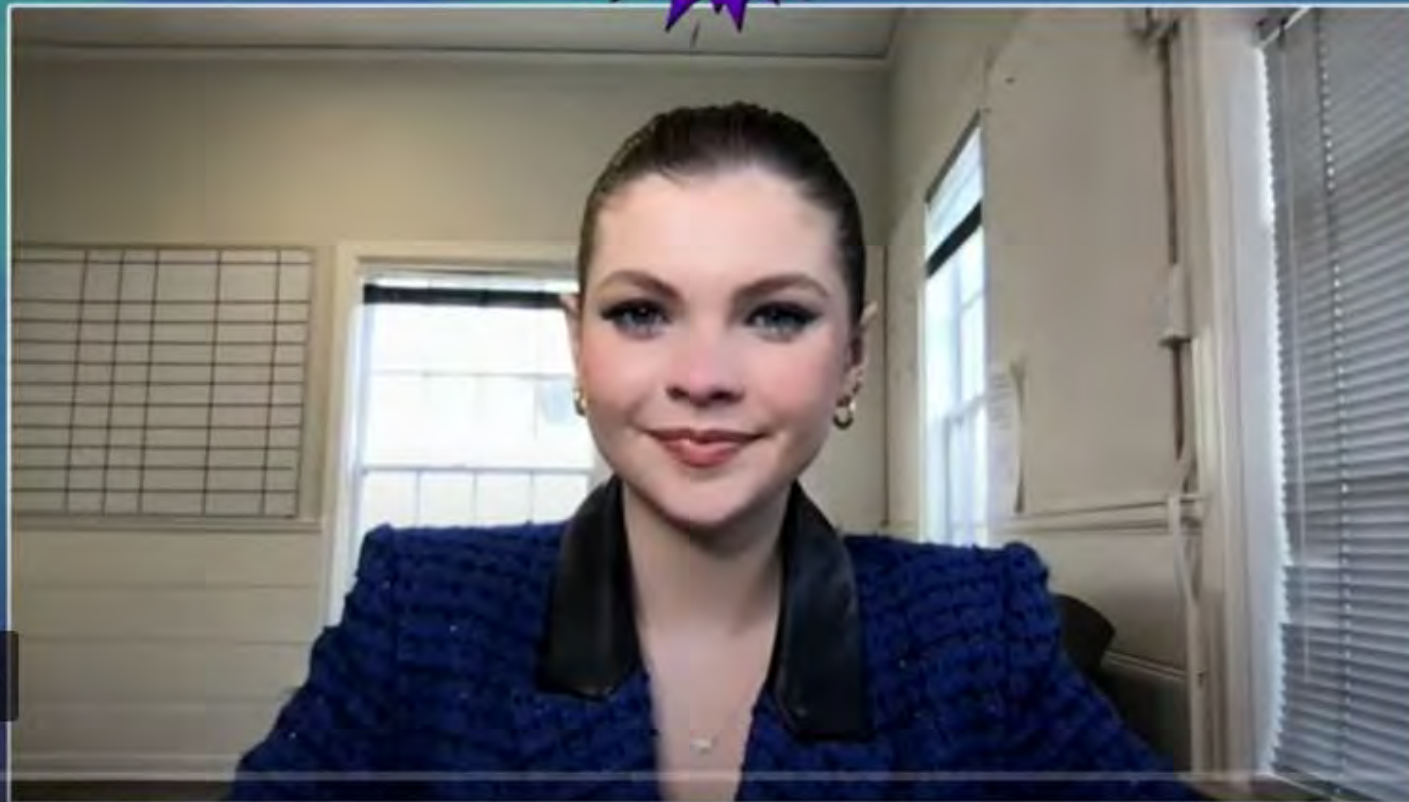

Kate Godfrey Talks Warped!

Watch later

Share

MORE VIDEOS

0:02 / 3:17

YouTube

Exclusive Interview: Kate Godfrey Chats Warped! - Pop-Culturalist.com

KATE GODFREY ON COMEDY, 'WARPED!', AND SO MUCH MORE!

To celebrate the premiere of Nickelodeon's brand new show Warped!, TEENPLICITY spoke with the cast to get to know their characters, what audiences can expect from the series, and so much more! Check out what Kate Godfrey has to say about her character Ruby below!

It's evident in the way she commands the screen that Kate Godfrey is a rising star.

The actress excels at comedy. Already racking up credits on her resume that include starring in the revival of All That and appearing on The Tonight Show with Jimmy Fallon, her comedic timing is spot on and the ease with which it flows from her is surely enviable.

"I would love to be a cast member of [Saturday Night Live] at some point in my life. It is a lot of work, but All That made me realize how much I love sketch comedy," Kate says when discussing her future in the genre. All That alum Kenan Thompson currently stars on the late-night sketch comedy show, holding the record for the longest-tenured cast member on the series for over 18 years so far. While it's possible for her to follow in his footsteps, she is keeping her options open. "I would also love to do some comedy movies – everybody loves a good comedy movie."

While Kate shares that she loves any form of comedy, she does have one particular area of interest. "My favorite comedy to perform is probably situational comedy. I like the idea of a funny sitcom or when things are funny just because of the environment."

It comes as no surprise that Kate signed onto Nickelodeon's latest series, Warped!.

Created by Kevin Kopelow and Heath Seifert, producers of All That and creators of Disney's Austin & Ally and Nickelodeon's Cousins for Life, Warped! follows lovable geek Milo [Anton Starkman] who works at the local comic book shop, Warped!. He finds his world turned inside out when his boss hires a new employee, the eccentric and excitable Ruby [Godfrey]. Soon enough, the two learn to work together as they create their own graphic novel.

"Ruby is a spaz ball. She is always coming up with ideas that will get the gang into trouble," Kate says of her character. "I love playing Ruby because I could literally make any funny choice and it would be considered 'in character.'"

Ruby makes quick friends with Darby [Ariana Molkara] once she is hired, instantly bonding over their excitement for a character from the show's fictional alien franchise. "Ruby fits in perfectly with Milo's friends because they are all unapologetically themselves," she says of Ruby's friendships with Darby and Hurley [Christopher Martinez]. "They all share the same love for comic books, which bonds them very quickly. Even though she is absolutely nuts, they really take her under their wing."

It does, however, take time for Ruby and Milo to find their footing.

"Ruby and Milo start as extremely competitive, but they grow to appreciate each other and work together. They are completely different people, which makes their relationship very interesting to watch. Ruby makes a lot of silly and illogical mistakes, and Milo has to find a logical way to solve them."

Ruby's employment at Warped! initially worries Milo about his own job security but they are able to overcome it. Like Milo, Ruby is a whiz at all things comics, possibly the only one who can match Milo's knowledge.

"I honestly know nothing about comics compared to Ruby," Kate admits. She does say that she has tried to educate herself on comics because of the show. A hobby that holds her interest in a similar way that comics do for Ruby is painting. "I love painting. My friend Quinn recently got me into it. I have been trying to learn the tips and tricks of oil paint - it's pretty fun!" The actress shares that it is a new hobby, but it is one that she thoroughly enjoys. "I have ruined sooooo many sweatshirts and furniture with oil paint." She adds, "Oops."

Another passion Kate has is writing. When asked if that is something she'd love to bring to her character, the actress says, "One of the things that makes Milo and Ruby such a great team is that Milo is really good at writing and Ruby is really good at drawing. Together they make a graphic novel that they are trying to get published. However, I would love to see Ruby learn some tips and tricks about writing from Milo." She continues, "I love writing stories so I bet Ruby would too."

With the show having only just premiered, there is plenty in store to keep viewers' attention as the season progresses. For Kate, she's most excited for the audience to see all the fun characters that Ruby plays. "She is always in disguises and acting as random people. They are very similar to the characters I played on All That. I love playing weirdos so I am lucky that Ruby does too."

Her favorite Ruby disguise in the series comes in a later episode where Kate gets to portray Ruby as a teenaged boy. "I absolutely love playing a boy because it is the furthest thing away from the actual me," she says. "It is so fun to do little mannerisms and drop my voice."

Discussing a dream guest star for the show also gives Kate the idea for the role they could play, relating it back to her favorite disguise.

"I would have Kate McKinnon guest star on the show and I would make her character be my boy character's dad. We could both play boys together. That would be fun."

Considering the fact that the show revolves around the ongoings of the group at their local comic store, TEENPLICITY couldn't help but dive more into Kate's knowledge and preferences of comics.

Though she says she isn't as well-versed in comic books as her character, she recalls her favorite comic book growing up to be a tie between Diary of a Wimpy Kid and Captain Underpants. "I think it would be funny to have Captain Underpants on the show, but a little weird," she says.

What if she could be any comic book character? The answer is easy for the rising star as she chooses Spider-Man. "I love all the Spider-Man movies and I think his powers are really cool. Being able to swing from building to building would be very helpful getting to work everyday."

Her answer is almost expected then when discussing her favorite comic book movie. "My favorite superhero movie is either the new Spider-Man movie or any of the Iron Man movies. I think the Iron Man movies are the best Marvel movies; they are pretty funny."

KATE AND ANTON STAR IN THE BRAND- NEW NICKELODEON SHOW, WARPED!

The series, coming to Nick in January, takes place in a popular comic book shop, where Kate Godfrey and Anton Starkman's characters come together to create a graphic novel. They talked to us all about it!

J-14: Hi guys! What can we expect from your characters on the show?

ANTON STARKMAN: Milo is obsessed with all things comics. He also likes things done in a specific way and he's stressed out most of the time because his friends definitely do not do things his way.

KATE GODFREY: Ruby is a ball of energy. She is constantly coming up with silly ideas that, somehow, she convinces Milo to do. Ruby and Milo are so different that it makes this show fun to watch.

J-14: If you made your own graphic novel like your characters do, what would it be about?

AS: I would write a space adventure about a hero discovering their superpowers. I would want the story to be realistic because I've always admired heroes that amaze us as well as teach real-world skills. I mean, come on, everyone thinks they might have superpowers at least once in their life!

KG: I always tease Anton that I would make a graphic novel called Anton Eats because he is a picky eater. It would center around Anton as he is forced to order something other than buttered pasta or chicken strips.

J-14: Why do you think J-14 readers are going to love Warped!?

AS: I think J-14 readers are going to love this show because we have fun adventures, awesome sets, some action, a little bit of chaos and a whole lot of friendship.

KG: I know you guys will love the show because it is action-packed and so funny. Each of the characters bring something different and unique!

Bella

December 17th, 2019

Bella

Kate Godfrey starring on the reboot of ALL THAT

The beautiful Kate Godfrey acts, sings, and dances. Having started her career at a young age, the talented actress continuously works on having confidence in herself and stars in the successful reboot of ALL THAT. With the support from those around her, Godfrey has many goals in mind and continues to strive for them every day. Full of light, we are excited to see where her journey takes her next! Tell us more about your role on ALL THAT. How has your experience been on set?

Working on All That has been a dream come true. I have discovered a passion for creating characters. I love transforming into someone who is so far off from who I actually am. My experience on set has been wonderful. I love all my cast members, and I truly feel like I am part of a family.

With the show being a reboot, what are some key things you had to do to get into this role/mindset?

All throughout the audition process, my homework was to watch old clips of the original All That. I didn't know the show was a reboot until right before I booked the job. I assumed it would be similar to All That, with the executive producers being Kel Mitchell and Kenan Thompson, but the show was called "Untitled Sketch Show" during all my auditions.

Have you always wanted to be an actress?

When I was younger, I played softball and soccer. I lived in Arizona, it was super hot, and I was never excited about playing in my games every weekend. My parents saw an audition notice for the community theatre in our neighborhood. It was in air conditioning, so I was on board. I quit softball and began acting. In my first ever show I played a dancing fork. I wore a cardboard fork on my back. I loved it. I did every single kids show at that community center until I was too old to participate. Ever since then I knew I wanted to act and perform for a living.

You are starting off your career young. So far, what are some key lessons you think you have learned?

A lesson I have learned during my career is to have confidence in yourself. I am still learning this lesson. As a comedian, trusting yourself and having confidence is extremely important. You have to make choices to be funny, but not all your choices are going to be funny. It is important to know that it is okay, and to learn from it.

Bella

What are some things you see yourself having to continue working on?

I am always working on different characters and different voices. Because All That is Sketch Comedy, we get multiple different characters every week. It is helpful if I have a repertoire of voices to choose from. I am lucky to be blessed with a unique voice, because it helps me a lot in sketch comedy.

You act, sing, and dance. How do you balance it all?

Practicing all of my hobbies is hard, but I genuinely love to do all three. Practicing acting, singing, and dancing doesn't seem like a task, but a break. If I am overwhelmed about school or work I will go in my room and sing or play the piano.

Have you written any songs? If so, what are they about? If no, what would you like to write about?

I love to write. I have written a lot of things, and I have taken a few scene writing classes. I am still improving, but writing is definitely something I would love to pursue.

Walk us through a typical day before being on set.

Before filming and going on set, we go through a very long hair and makeup process. Depending on the sketch, we could be in Hair and Makeup for up to three hours! Although we are there for a while, it is a lot of fun. Our hair and makeup artists are very entertaining, so the time flies by. Other things I do while waiting for my makeup/hair to be done are run my lines, talk to my cast members, or go on my phone.

Who has been your biggest support as you continue on this journey? My biggest supporters have been my family. My parents and siblings have made so many sacrifices for me to reach my goals. Without my family, I could have never booked All That.

What are some goals you hope to achieve?

I have so many goals I would like to achieve in my lifetime. I would like to be a cast member of Saturday Night Live, be in a movie, win an Emmy, an Oscar, and be on Broadway. Those are just a few! I may not get to all of them, but I will have fun trying.

By Alexandra Bonnet

Photo credit : Ryan

The logo for the Nickelodeon show 'All That' is displayed in a stylized, white, blocky font against a bright pink square background.

Get ready, people, because Nickelodeon Opens in a new Window.'s All That Opens in a new Window. is almost back! The latest episode is set to premiere on Saturday, January 18 and, according to the cast, it's filled with hilarious new sketches.

J-14 got a chance to sit down with Kate Godfrey Opens in a new Window. from the show (which also stars Ryan Alessi Opens in a new Window., Reece Caddell Opens in a new Window., Gabrielle Nevaeh Green Opens in a new Window., Nathan Janak Opens in a new Window., Lex Lumpkin Opens in a new Window. and Chinguun Sergelen Opens in a new Window.) exclusively about the show and they spilled a lot of on set secrets! They also opened up about their audition process and experience being a part of the iconic series' reboot.

J-14: What was the audition process like for ‘All That?’ How did you land the role?

Kate Godfrey: The audition process was pretty long. I auditioned seven times, I believe. I know some of my other cast members auditioned eight or nine times. The first one I did two characters — grandma and a sports lady — and then they kept calling me back and calling me back, it was super fun and obviously nerve wracking because you don’t know what’s going to happen. Then my final audition was called “The Test” and that was pretty nerve wracking too, just because it’s called a “test” and I did that audition.

J-14: What does it feel like knowing people have been loving the reboot so much?

Kate: I just love to act, it’s like my sport. So the fact that people watch it and tune in every Saturday is really special to me.

J-14: Do you feel any pressure starring in a reboot of such an iconic show?

Kate: We definitely had some big shoes to fill because it’s just so loved and iconic. The original cast members were so welcoming, and kind. They were so helpful, it made it a lot easier

J-14: What has been your favorite sketch?

Kate: It’s really hard to pick my favorite sketch because they’re all very fun to do, but I really like “Marie Kiddo” because I get to smash and actually break things which is really fun. I like doing “Brie Back From The Dentist” because she’s super messy and I get to get covered in pudding. I get to do very messy things. It’s fun, especially when other people clean you up.

J-14: Have you ever had any sketch ideas of your own that they used in the show?

Kate: The first ever meeting we did with the writers, we told them a few sketch ideas we had and then a few characters that we already developed. For my audition I did a grandma and then they put that in a music video. For our first cast and group meeting we did a music video and I played my grandma that I did in the audition.

J-14: Can you spill any behind-the-scene secrets or stories from the All That set?

Kate: One secret that’s not really portrayed in the show is that Nathan [Janak] carries an orange. Nobody really knows why, but in the ‘90s Josh Server used to carry an apple during the musical guest performances, so in the reboot, Nathan carries an orange.

J-14: Are you close to your cast mates when the cameras stop rolling?

Kate: We're so close, we never stop hanging out with each other.

We just went on break for New Year's and we were literally facetimeing every day, we're always texting. We're all pretty much best friends.

J-14: What's your favorite memory from working on the show?

Kate: When we were first announced as a cast and we were on the TODAY Show. It was fun to be with all my new friends and doing something so momentous in my life.

J-14: You've worked with a few of the original All That stars. What was that like?

Kate: It's so cool because throughout the audition process we had to watch All That sketches. By the time I got the job I knew every single sketch, I basically had them all memorized and so [just to see them, they're iconic. Kel \[Mitchell\]Opens in a new Window., Lori Beth \[Denberg\]Opens in a new Window., Kenan ThompsonOpens in a new Window. and Josh ServerOpens in a new Window., they're really nice and very talented people.](#)

The logo for 'J-14' is displayed in white, bold, sans-serif font against a solid pink rectangular background.

J-14: If you could work with any one of the original 'All That' cast members that you haven't yet, who would it be?

Kate: I hope that Amanda BynesOpens in a new Window. comes back because I loved watching her in all her sketches. That would be the top of my list.

J-14: Are there any guest stars or musical guests you really want to be on the show?

Kate: I really like Taylor SwiftOpens in a new Window., so I think Taylor or [Ariana \[Grande\]Opens in a new Window.](#) That would be very cool.

Hollywood Life

<https://hollywoodlife.com/2020/01/25/kate-godfrey-all-that-cast-member-interview/>

January 25th, 2020

'All That's Kate Godfrey Teases One Of Her Fave New Characters, Reveals Her Dream Guest Star & More

‘All That’ is back with all-new episodes and the young cast is better than ever. HL spoke EXCLUSIVELY with cast member Kate Godfrey about her favorite characters, her dream guest star, and more.

Kate Godfrey is one of comedy’s talented rising stars. She’s a cast member on Nickelodeon’s All That, America’s #1 kid’s sketch comedy show. The hit ’90s series returned in 2019 with a new cast and became an instant hit once again, bringing so many laughs with every single episode. The show, which airs on Saturday, is starting the new decade off right with brand-new episodes and new characters fans are going to love.

HollywoodLife talked EXCLUSIVELY with Kate about her All That journey so far. She teased that there will be even more new musical and special guest stars in the upcoming episodes. Kate talked about finding one her “true loves” in performing comedy and working alongside her fellow cast members. She also revealed her dream All That guest star and her comedy inspirations.

What can fans expect from these next episodes?

Kate Godfrey: Fans can expect great new musical and special guest stars that have also been written into our sketches. There will be some fun music parody videos starring the All That cast.

The writers have also created many new recurring characters that I think will be iconic and our audiences are going to love.

What is your favorite skit so far and why?

Kate Godfrey: It is very hard to pick a favorite sketch. I love Marie Kiddo because I actually get to break things, I love T. Smith because I get to sing, I love Brie Back From

The Dentist because she is SO messy, and I love Tammy because well she is just Tammy, what can I say?

What’s something you’ve learned about yourself as you’ve filmed this first season?

Kate Godfrey: Something I have learned about myself is I really enjoy performing comedy. I always thought I would focus on the stage, singing, and Broadway, but I have found one of my true loves in comedy. It is such a rewarding feeling when you know your comedic choice was successful.

Is there a special on-set moment that stands out to you?

Kate Godfrey: I love the moment just before we go out on stage for the live audience. The energy is intense and we are all so nervous and excited; it is always very surreal

Shimmering Star Spotlight: Kate Godfrey

Each month YAYOMG! selects a Shimmering Star to spotlight. Follow along as we shine a light on girls who represent kindness, positivity, empowerment, philanthropy, drive, and confidence. They're sure to inspire you!

A new month means a new Shimmering Star, and this month we've selected the hilarious and talented Kate Godfrey!

Kate is a total scene-stealer on All That, completely embodying every character she takes on. Whether she's manically destroying everything in sight as the iconic Marie Kiddo or playing Taylor Swift's biggest (and most intense) fan, Kate's passion for comedy shines bright through it all.

Get to Know Kate Godfrey:

When she's not working on the show, gaming with her castmates, or making music at home, Kate loves helping others. She is enthusiastic about giving back and is thrilled to be performing at the Songs St. Jude benefit concert later this month. She'll be singing alongside other talented young stars from Broadway, Nickelodeon, Disney Channel, and more in support of St. Jude's Children's Hospital.

We caught up with Kate Godfrey about her charity efforts, her dream of performing on Broadway, and all things All That!

Tell us a little bit about YOU!

KATE GODFREY: I love to play the piano, guitar, and ukulele! I love anything to do with music. I also recently have liked to paint with watercolors!

Take us behind the scenes a bit. What is it like on the All That set, and what do you love most about working on the series?

KATE: Working on All That is extremely fun. My favorite part about it is performing all the wild sketches. I get to do fun things like smash my face in cake and destroy many things (cabinets, vases, walls, and more!). When I am not on set, I am usually playing video games with my cast members or getting something to eat at crafty.

Do you have a favorite sketch that you've worked on for the show?

KATE: I can't pick a favorite sketch because they are all so fun! I love Marie Kiddo because I get to actually smash things, and I love Brie because she is SO messy. I have another favorite that the world will meet on Saturday the 18th! She is very weird and funny!

Before All That, you got your start in the theater. Do you see yourself heading back to the stage in the future?

KATE: I will definitely never lose my passion for theater. I love getting to perform live on a big stage. One of my life goals has always been to be on Broadway, so hopefully I can accomplish that in the future!

How do you shine bright?

KATE: At my high school, we were required to volunteer 30-40 hours a semester at the charity of your choice. It's hard to squeeze those hours in now working five days a week and going to school full time, but a great benefit to my job is being invited to charity events on the weekends to help raise money for various children's charities or to meet children that are fans of the show. Any chance to bring a smile to a sick child's face is so heartwarming and a privilege to me. One of my favorite

The women who inspire me are...

KATE: Kate McKinnon, Ellen DeGeneres, Zendaya, and my mom!

I am most passionate about...

KATE: I am most passionate about comedy, acting, and singing. I love to do all three things so much!

I feel most confident when...

KATE: When I am in front of the camera!

My biggest dream is...

KATE: I have a lot of big dreams. I would like to be on SNL one day, or maybe get into writing sketches or songs.

The advice I want to share with other girls...

KATE: The advice I want to share with other girls is to work hard, but don't forget to have fun too! My second grade teacher always said, "Hard work, Done well, Feels good." I have lived by it ever since.

Kate Godfrey Owned Her Own Company Before She Was on 'All That'

Kate Godfrey's first job wasn't being an actress! The 16-year-old All That star chatted with JJJ so we could get to know a little more about her...

Kate spilled 10 Fun Facts, including her cool entrepreneurial endeavor, her unusual favorite pizza topping and some of her hobbies!

- I love to ride go-karts.
- I used to own a slime company! (Yep, you read that right!) It was called Slime Sausages.
- I LOVE pineapple on my pizza.
- I have a dog named Pete!
- I am originally from Arizona.

Click inside to read the rest of Kate's fun facts...

- I am studying for my drivers permit! Yikes!
- I am a TERRIBLE roller-skater.
- I love to go thrift shopping with my friends.
- I am learning to play the guitar.
- When I was 3, I cut my bangs to look like Dora the

<https://www.j-14.com/posts/kate-godfrey-talks-playing-justin-bieber-for-all-that-sketch/>

Exclusive 'All That' Star Kate Godfrey Spills On Playing Justin Bieber For 'Yummy' Sketch

May 15, 2020 4:00 pm
By J-14 Staff

Get ready to laugh out loud because Kate Godfrey totally transformed into Justin Bieber for an All That sketch and she looks exactly like the singer! From his iconic tattoos to the pink buzz cut and everything in between, we can't recognize the 15-year-old actress in this hilarious "Yummy" parody video.

In honor of the show's new episode (which premieres on Saturday, May 16 at 8:30 P.M EST on Nickelodeon), the star just spilled all the tea exclusively to J-14 about what it was like portraying such an iconic musician, her favorite songs by the crooner and even shared some behind-the-scenes set secrets!

J-14: What was it like portraying Justin Bieber? Was it hard?

Kate Godfrey: Portraying Justin Bieber was SO fun. I really like when I get to play a boy on the show because it is literally the farthest away from my real personality that you could get. It definitely had its challenges, but it was the most fun I have ever had while filming a sketch.

J-14: Are you a fan of his?

Kate: I am a big fan of Justin Bieber!! Who isn't a fan right?

J-14: What's your favorite Justin Bieber song?

Kate: Right now I really like "Intentions," and I love his new song with Ariana Grande, "Stuck With U." But I mean, an OG JB song, is "As Long As You Love Me."

J-14: Did you feel any pressure or nerves taking on someone so big and popular?

Kate: I definitely had some nerves about that, but I worked really hard with our acting coach Anthony LeBlanc, he was super helpful.

J-14: What was your first reaction when you found out you were going to play him in a skit?

Kate: I was beyond excited because for some weird reason I just love doing impressions of boys. And this is not just any regular boy, its JB!

J-14: Tell us a little about the physical transformation — was it hard being turned into the singer?

Kate: The hardest part was the tattoos. Justin Bieber has full sleeves of tattoos. But dont worry! The tattoos our makeup artist, Michael Johnson, used, were temporary. However, they were super hard to get off

J-14: How did you prepare for the role? Did you study up on his music videos?

Kate: I think I watched the original Yummy music video about 50 times, and I watched basically every recent Justin Bieber video. Even videos of him getting chased down by paparazzi.

J-14: Do you and your 'All That' costars get along when cameras stop rolling?

Kate: Yes! We are so so close. Like many friend groups, being in quarantine has been hard for us because we miss each other so much!

J-14: Can you share any fun behind-the-scenes memories or stories from on set?

Kate: During one of the sketches, "Detective Dan and Ann," there was a cat.

The cat was originally grey, but during our rehearsal the cat scratched Ryan Alessi and the cat was fired! Who knew you could fire a cat, haha!"

J-14: What is your favorite skit you've ever acted in?

Kate: I think the "Yummy" music video takes the cake. The dancers were so kind and supportive and I really enjoyed their vibe. One of my favorite directors to work with is Jonathan Judge, so I was really lucky that he directed the video.

<http://www.justjaredjr.com/2020/05/12/belieber-kate-godfrey-stars-as-justin-bieber-in-yummy-parody-on-all-that-sneak-peek-video/>

May 12th, 2020

Belieber Kate Godfrey Stars As Justin Bieber In 'Yummy' Parody On 'All That' - Sneak Peek Video!

Kate Godfrey steps into Justin Bieber's shoes for an all new parody for All That!

The young actress performed a new version of his comeback single “Yummy”, where “Justin” sings an ode to school hot lunches and his gratitude for the ladies who serve them.

JJJ spoke to Kate about getting the chance to play Justin Bieber in a sketch.

“Playing Justin Bieber was definitely one of my favorite characters I have played on All That. Ever since I was little I have loved listening to Justin Bieber, but I definitely never thought I would get to do an impression of him,” Kate dished. “I watched the original “Yummy” music video about 50 times to study his movements and facial expressions.”

“My favorite part about filming this sketch was learning the dance,” she added. “The dancers who were in the video were so kind and supportive, and they made the sketch even more fun to film. Chris Judd, who choreographed the video, is always really fun to work with.”

Other sketches featured in the episode include: Coach Kreeton (Kel Mitchell) teaches ping pong; the kids get trapped in a never ending TikTok dance; Tammy TMI is interviewed on live television; and a new way to get ready for the day: the Human Car Wash. The episode also features a performance by Lauv of his hit song “El Tejano.”

Tune in to watch “Yummy” and more sketches in an all new All That THIS Saturday (May 16) at 8:30pm ET/PT on Nickelodeon!

<https://hollywoodlife.com/2020/05/14/all-that-kate-godfrey-justin-bieber-yummy-video-transformation-interview/>

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW
MAY 14, 2020 5:19 PM EDT

‘All That’s Kate Godfrey Reveals How She Transformed Into Justin Bieber For ‘Yummy’ Parody

‘All That’ star Kate Godfrey is playing the one and only Justin Bieber in an epic ‘Yummy’ music video parody that will air during the May 16 episode. HL spoke with Kate about the transformation process and more!

Get ready to do a double-take! All That cast member Kate Godfrey will be playing Justin Bieber in the May 16 episode of the Nickelodeon sketch series. Kate will star in a music video parody of Justin’s hit song “Yummy.” The All That version takes place in a school cafeteria. Some of the lyrics have been changed, and this version will bring on all the laughs. Kate looks exactly like Justin, complete with a bright pink wig and a matching sweatshirt. HollywoodLife talked with Kate about impersonating one of the biggest pop stars in the world.

“I was SO excited. I really love playing boys because I can make choices that I would never be able to make with any of my other characters. I was excited to see what the writers had planned,” Kate told HollywoodLife. To prepare for the “Yummy” parody, Kate admitted that she watched the original video “so many times to study his movements and facial expressions. I watched his interviews, performances, and his dancing. I had to make sure my actions weren’t too feminine because that’s all I know.”

The 16-year-old revealed that her favorite part about filming the parody was “how nice and supportive the dancers were. They had such a good vibe! They were really fun to laugh with. I also loved doing the dance. Chris Judd choreographed the music video, and he killed it.”

Kate already has an idea about another Justin Bieber video parody she could do in the future. “The writers for All That never fail to amaze me, so I would have to see what they have in mind! Maybe Justin Bieber and Ariana Grande, played by Nathan Janak, could do a parody on the new song they just released.” We’d be down for All That’s take on “Stuck With U!” All That airs Saturdays at 8:30 p.m. on Nickelodeon.

girls' WORLD

Totally Created By You!

Love s'mores? YOU HAVE TO TRY THESE CUPCAKES!

QUIZ: What will you be when you grow up?

The All That girls tell you how to have

MORE FUN FRIENDS! with

FROZEN 2 SECRETS REVEALED!

Meet the cast of the new High School Musical TV show!

NOVEMBER 2019 | DISPLAY UNTIL 11/29/19
$4.99US $5.99CAN 11
0 74820 64502 4

your cover story

THE ALL THAT GIRLS' GUIDE TO HAVING FUN WITH YOUR FRIENDS!

Kate Godfrey, Gabrielle Nevaeh Green and Reece Caddell share their best ideas!

THEY HAVE INSIDE JOKES!
"Kate has a little awkward dance she calls her 'awko-taco dance' that she does when she's nervous or excited, and now we all do it!" Reece dishes.

THEY HAVE THE SAME TASTES!
"After our live shows on Friday nights, we love to go to McDonald's and eat chicken nuggets," Kate says.

THEY TALK ALL THE TIME!
"We text each other, like, 24/7 when we're not filming," Gabrielle tells us. "It's kind of crazy! It doesn't matter if it's only been a day since we've seen each other, or a month."

RAID YOUR CLOSET "MINUTE TO WIN IT" STYLE!

"You only have a minute to pick a cute outfit from your closet," Kate gives the rules. "The outfits can have different genres like fancy, casual and beach day!"

PLAY HIDE-AND-SEEK!
"I love this game because it's easy and it's very fun to play with a group of your friends!" Kate reveals.

SET UP A DOMINO RUN!
That's when you place dominoes in a big formation or line and then make them all fall down. "It might take a while, but it ends up being so cool!" the actress assures us.

TRY TRAMPOLINE GAMES!
"Put balloons on your trampoline and jump," she suggests. "When it's warm out, you can even use water balloons. This is so fun to do with a big group!"

DO THE SMOOTHIE CHALLENGE!
How? "Set up a bowl filled with papers that have ingredients — good or bad — written on them, then draw from the bowls. Whatever you pick, you have to put in your smoothie," Kate explains.

KATE

GABRIELLE

REECE

HAVE A SPA DAY!
"A spa day with your gal pals is just the thing you need to unwind, while still having a good time!" Gabrielle says.

BUILD AN EPIC FORT!
"We have a 'That Cave' on set," Gabby shares. "It's in Kate's dressing room closet. We lined the walls and ceiling with string lights and covered the floor with fuzzy blankets and fluffy pillows. It's the ultimate hangout spot!"

HOST A GAME NIGHT!
"You and your friends can play store-bought ones or make up your own. Reece, Kate and I love playing games on sat!" she dishes.

START A PILLOW FIGHT!
"This one is a classic for a good reason," the star jokes. "I've always loved having pillow fights with my friends. Just be careful!"

GET IN THE HOLIDAY SPIRIT!
Gabby thinks it's never too early to start celebrating the holidays with pals! "They're always right around the corner, and there's no better way to celebrate than making DIY ornaments," she smiles.

HAVE AN OUTDOOR MOVIE NIGHT!
"Project the movie onto a sheet!" Reece suggests. And that's not all you need! The actress also suggests making themed snacks to go with the movie.

PUT ON A FASHION SHOW!
"I started doing this with my friends when I was little," she remembers. "Have someone be the announcer to describe the looks and don't forget to take photos."

FILM YOUR OWN MUSIC VIDEO!
"It's very cool to learn how to shoot and edit your own project," Reece smiles. "I need to do this with Kate and Gabby pronto! Kate is an amazing singer and Gabby has awesome dance moves."

MAKE SLIME!
"My favorite is cloud slime, but it's cool that there are so many different kinds you can make," she says. "Kate is our resident slime expert!"

GO BOWLING!
Bowling is a classic activity the whole All That cast loves. "I am definitely the worst bowler of our group, but I always have fun," Reece laughs.

What it's like to be friends with Gabby:
Kate says "Gabby is the friend who I can talk to about anything."
Reece says "I call her whenever I need advice about something."

What it's like to be friends with Kate:
Gabby says "She's by far the best secret-keeper and listener."
Reece says "Kate is the kind of friend I would call when I need to be cheered up."

What it's like to be friends with Reece:
Gabby says "She has the perfect blend of silliness and caring-ness."
Kate says "Reece is the friend who I can always count on for a good laugh."

JOHN ISAWAY/REXUS/ORBIS (2); INSTAGRAM/CADDELL

June 11th, 2019

<https://www.azcentral.com/story/entertainment/television/2019/06/11/scottsdale-actress-kate-godfrey-in-all-that-revival-on-nickelodeon/1388003001/>

"All That," a "Saturday Night Live"-like comedy sketch series for kids, originally captivated kids' attention on Nickelodeon from 1994-2016. But this time, there's a revival of "All That" for the new generation coming to Nick on Saturday, June 15, and a 15-year-old Scottsdale native is part of the cast.

Kate Godfrey's first role was in "Beauty and The Beast" as a dancing fork at the Homestead Playhouse in DC Ranch when she was 9 years old. So that means she's a triple threat: She can act, dance and sing. She also starred in Arizona Theatre Company's "Fiddler on the Roof" and she played teen Fiona in "Shrek The Musical" at 5-Star Theatricals in Thousand Oaks, California. She decided to pursue a career in L.A., where her adventures took her to "All That" auditions. See what Kate Godfrey has to say about working with the original "All That" cast including Kenan Thompson, Lori Beth Denberg, Kel Mitchell and Josh Server, portraying comedic roles and meeting the Jonas Brothers.

Question: Had you watched any of the original "All That" episodes before getting the role?

Answer: Before I got the roll I actually saw a little bit of "The Amanda Show," and when I was auditioning for the show, they didn't know what it was called yet. It was called "Untitled Sketch Show," but they said watch "All That" for reference. So during the audition process, I actually watched a lot of "All That" even though I didn't know it was going to be that.

Q: How are you guys approaching the show differently this time around?

A: It's basically the exact same "All That" except it has a modern twist on it and a new cast and we're still having original cast members. They have cameos here and there, it's really great.

Q: Speaking of the original cast, what was it like working with them?

A: They are so sweet and supportive, and it's really nice to know that they're supporting us because they were in our shoes in the '90s. And so to know that we can ask them for advice or if we need any help with anything or if we had any questions, we can ask them and they'll happily answer them. It's really nice to know that.

Q: One of the early musical guests for "All That" is the Jonas Brothers. Did you get to meet them?

A: Yes, I did get to meet them. I actually was lucky enough to get to do a scene with them, and it was so crazy. They're so sweet. And yeah, they basically look exactly how they look on TV. I watched them a lot when I was growing up and it's very cool to know that they are back together as well. And doing a scene with them was very surreal. I got to do a Good Burger sketch with them.

Q: What are you most excited for people to see?

A: I'm excited for them to see all the crazy sketches because we definitely do a lot of crazy things. ... I play Marie Kiddo. It's actually on YouTube. And I got to destroy a cabinet and a ton of other stuff.

It was so much fun to film. I was a little nervous smashing the glass cabinet. Because they kept saying, "If you get glass in your shoes, stop and tell us to hold and we'll hold." And then I was like, "Wait? I'm going to get glass in my shoes?" But it was really fun.

Q: How do you handle comedic roles?

A: I think just going for it and having no fear. And being OK with the fact that the choices you make might not always be funny, but in order to be funny you have to make choices. So you really just have to trust yourself and be confident in what you're doing. Right now basically anything we film I think is so funny. All this stuff has been hilarious. I don't know how the writers do it. Every little thing is so funny. Even if it doesn't make it to camera and it just makes it to a table reading.

Q: This show looks like it has a lot of costumes. What was that like?

A: We have a ton of fun costumes. Our hair and makeup and wardrobe team are so amazing and all the costumes blow me away. Sitting in the hair and makeup chair sometimes takes longer than it actually takes to film the sketch. They make it look perfect, and the makeup is amazing, the hair is amazing. They're super articulate wigs. It's amazing how much work goes into a two minute sketch.

Q: So according to your IMDb page, your first role was a dancing fork?

A: Yes, I decided to try theater and I was really nervous. ... I just wanted to get out of the heat because you know it's very hot in Arizona. And I didn't like sports. So my mom was like, "The Homestead is doing 'Beauty and The Beast.' Want to try out?" And I was like, "Yeah, I guess so."

I remember that for the audition process I was so nervous. I think I had to sing and I had to pretend to be a clock. I remember that oddly weird detail, but I don't know why I remember pretending to be a clock. And then I was a cardboard fork.

Q: Being from Scottsdale, how has experience here helped with your career?

A: I think most everything I got in Arizona is so helpful to me right now. You can't just go into this having no training. Even my role as a dancing fork at the Homestead helped me and prepared me for this. And also Arizona Theatre Company. Just performing on stage definitely prepared me for this. Every Friday we have live audiences, so I think theater training really helped me.

Q: I know it's summer break right now, but is it tough to balance school and work?

A: It's pretty hard. You definitely have to work harder than other kids who don't act and don't have a full-time job. We do school on set for three hours. At the most we do five hours, but sometimes we do one to five hours of school a day. You just have to work harder than other kids that aren't in the industry. And you have to keep in mind that education is just as important as your job.

<http://www.justjaredjr.com/2019/09/29/all-thats-kate-godfrey-celebrates-her-sweet-16-with-cast-mates/>

'All That's Kate Godfrey Celebrates Her Sweet 16 With Cast Mates!

Kate Godfrey had the perfect place to host her sweet 16! The All That actress celebrate her big day at the Good Burger Pop-Up Diner on Saturday (September 28) in West Hollywood, Calif.

She was joined by her co-stars Reece Caddell, Nathan Janak, Gabrielle Green, Lex Lumpkin and Chinguun Sergelen.

Original All That cast members Josh Server and Lori Beth Denberg were also in attendance!

“I had so much fun tonight!” Kate wrote on her Instagram story.

During the party, guests got to enjoy Good Burger’s signature burgers and shakes as well as an epic birthday cake.

People

May 29, 2019

<https://people.com/tv/meet-cast-nickelodeon-all-that-reboot/>

Meet the Cast of Nickelodeon's All That Reboot

The teens, ages 12 to 15, will introduce original comedic sketches, new characters and impersonations of today's popular celebrities

By Christina Dugan

This is All That!

The cast for Nickelodeon's All That has just been announced — and PEOPLE has the first look at the superstar teens who will be starring in the highly anticipated reboot.

Introducing Reece Caddell, Chinguun Sergelen, Gabrielle Green, Nathan Janak, Kate Godfrey, Ryan Alessi, and Lex Lumpkin!

The teens, ages 12 to 15, will introduce original comedic sketches, new characters and impersonations of today's popular celebrities. Each new episode of the reboot will also feature a musical performance from today's top artists and guest stars from the worlds of TV, film, comedy and more.

Earlier this month, Nickelodeon announced that the Jonas Brothers will close the June 15 premiere with a rendition of their smash hit "Sucker" after All That alumni Kel Mitchell, Kenan Thompson, Lori Beth Denberg and Josh Server make appearances with the new cast of teens.

Mitchell, who will also serve as executive producer alongside Thompson, said that being back on the All That set was "emotional" and "surreal."

"For us to see the new kids going through what we went through and experiencing the beginning and know what's to come for them — it's so cool to see their faces experiencing it all," Mitchell, 40, told PEOPLE. "I'm excited that I'm there to give advice. God made me ready for this."

"Know who you are and know that this is job," he added. "Know that you're going to work. The show is not the thing that makes you special. You're already special. I wanted them to know that you are already special."

The highly anticipated premiere episode will open with Mitchell, Denberg, 43, and Server, 40, imparting advice and words of wisdom to the new cast. And while Thompson, 41, won't be featured, he will be paying forward what he learned from his time on the show in the early 90s.

"[All That] really taught me what I was put here to do," said Thompson. "I always knew I wanted to be an actor but I didn't really know what that meant. It really taught me how to be a professional, how to play the camera ... it taught me everything."

In February, Nickelodeon announced the return of the sketch comedy show, set to feature cameos from the original cast.

Get ready for major throwback vibes. Nickelodeon's 'All That' is back with a brand-new cast. HL spoke EXCLUSIVELY with the new cast about the highly-anticipated reboot, working together, and more.

Nickelodeon's new version of the legendary sketch comedy series, All That, returns June 15 at 8:30 p.m. The new All That will feature a brand-new cast that includes Ryan Alessi, Reece Caddell, Kate Godfrey, Gabrielle Green, Nathan Janak, Lex Lumpkin, and Chinguun Sergelen. The premiere will feature appearances by original cast members Kel Mitchell, Lori Beth Denberg, and Josh Server. All That is also executive produced by original cast member Kenan Thompson. The Jonas Brothers will be performing their song "Sucker" during the premiere.

The reboot is perfect for fans of the original show who love nostalgia, as well as the new generation. HollywoodLife sat down EXCLUSIVELY with the new cast members to talk about all things All That. The young actors revealed their adorable reactions after they learned they had been cast in the reboot.

They also opened up about how much they love working together as well as what it's been like getting to know some of the original cast members. See the full Q&A below.

What was your reaction when you got the call that you were cast on the new All That?

Kate Godfrey: I think we all had the same reaction which was excited and happy. I cried. I was so happy. No words. It was amazing.

Nathan Janak: I cried as well and Chinguun can vouch for me that I was literally bawling because when I found out I was on the side of the street. We just got out of the test, the final stage of the audition, and so I got the call 20 minutes after that. We were still getting an Uber to go back home and I was just crying so badly.

Chinguun Sergelen: I was at The Grove when I got the call and I was running around the waterfalls that they had. I was crying, as was Nathan.

Gabrielle Green: When I got the call I was very, very sick. I was sweating. I had a very bad headache, I remember, but I was home with my aunt. My mom called and she conferenced me in with my agent and manager and my agent goes, "Hey, I know you're sick, but you know what the best cure for a cold is?" I was like, "What?" My agent said, "You booked All That." The headache and everything, the sweat, was just gone. I got up and I just started running around the room and then the call dropped and I was so upset. I kept calling my mom back saying, "Conference me back in, conference me back in." But she handled it.

Ryan Alessi: My story is not as interesting as their story, but I was driving out of a Best Buy. My mom was there and our manager told us that she wouldn't call us. She'd only call us if she had any news about the show and her number was on my mom's phone. So my manager, my agent, and I are on a three-way call and they said, "Guess what? You booked All That." My mom and I went absolutely crazy.

Lex Lumpkin: When I got the call, I was out front of a commercial audition and I was super happy. I was in shock didn't say anything because I wasn't sure if they had gotten the information right. When I got the role I was super happy, super excited, and pumped.

It's been a long time since the '90s when we first saw All That. With this new cast and reboot, is it different from the original show or does the heart of the show stay the same?

Lex Lumpkin: I feel that the new reboot still stays true to the original, but it's more modernized with new kids and it still brings back some of the old sketches and the original cast.

Nathan Janak: It's the same old All That with a brand-new cast. It's classic sketches, the same type of comedy, with an all-new cast and maybe some even old cast members, too.

What was it like for you all to work with some of the original All That cast members?

Gabrielle Green: Just getting to work with them is such an honor. They constantly are making sure we're comfortable with everything and making sure we understand everything. They're just like our big brothers and sisters and second parents. It's so amazing. Getting to go to work every day, you can't be sad with Kel Mitchell in the room because he's always like, "Hey guys, what's up?" So if you're having a bad day, Kel's the guy to call for sure. He's always giving us advice and always reminding us that this show is not what makes you special. You were born special.

Kate Godfrey: They're just so supportive. Since they were in our same shoes in the '90s, they know what it's like and they're giving us a bunch of advice. It's very helpful especially because we're all new at this and we've never shot something this big before.

Ryan Alessi: Overall, Nickelodeon has just been super awesome to us. The production's great. Every single person plays a part in making this project so good and perfect and making sure the cast is happy and making sure the writers are happy. It's super awesome that we've become a family. We're hanging out with each other all day, every day.

What's it like working with each other?

Reece Caddell: Working with this cast is probably one of the most amazing things I've ever done. They are so supportive because they know exactly what we're doing and they have the same feelings because we're all in this together.

Gabrielle Green: We all love each other. I think I speak for everyone when I say these are some of the best friends that I've ever had in my entire life. I really trust these people and that's really hard for me because I don't trust people a lot, but we've really built a strong community, including Kel, Lori Beth, Josh, and all the OGs. We're really tight and that's really important in this kind of show because with all the improv and all the sketch comedy characters, you really have to trust each other.

Nathan Janak: To add on what everyone said, we really all just love working together whether it's off-screen or on-screen. We just have a personal chemistry and connection with one another. It's just a magical thing. I'm so grateful that I get to work with you guys and that we all have this opportunity. Y'all are just the bestest friends in the entire world.

Ryan Alessi: We're sort of like the cast of Friends, just like sketch comedy this time.

All That* has been had so many fans since it premiered 25 years ago. What do you think makes fans keep loving All That after all these years?

Lex Lumpkin: I think what makes the fans love All That, specifically, is because of all the new sketches each week. There are new characters and the cast never holds back. They love what they do. They're always going full-on to make the people laugh and it's awesome that the cast just loves doing what they're doing and making people laugh.

Nathan Janak: I think the all-new All That is going to make some of the people who watched it back in the '90s feel like a kid again watching it on their screen because it really is, like we've all said before, the same type of comedy.

Ryan Alessi: It's the same two writers, Kevin Kopelow and Heath Seifert. They were writers for the old All That, too. Plus, they have some new amazing writers that have come on and it's just a really talented group of people.

DEADLINE

'Are You Afraid Of The Dark?', 'All That', 'Top Elf,' 'Blue's Clues', The Casagrandes' & 'PAW Patrol' Among Slew Of Nickelodeon Renewals

<https://deadline.com/2020/02/nickelodeon-renewals-are-you-afraid-of-the-dark-all-that-paw-patrol-blues-clues-the-casagrandes-top-elf-1202862741/>

Nickelodeon handed renewals to a brace of series today, including second seasons of Are You Afraid of the Dark? and The Casagrandes.

The network also ordered 10 more episodes of the first season of the revived All That.

Coming back for more in 2020-21 are veteran kids series PAW Patrol, Bubble Guppies, Blaze and the Monster Machines and the revived Blue's Clues & You, along with holiday-themed competition series Top Elf. Read details of all of them below. Now in its 40th year, Nickelodeon is unveiling its renewal slate on the eve of parent ViacomCBS earnings call for the fourth quarter.

All That (Season 1, additional 10-episode pickup)

With a first season totaling 36 episodes, the reboot of the iconic '90s pop-culture sketch series showcases the comedic talents of eight kid comedians and features musical performances and guest appearances from today's biggest stars.

DEADLINE

'Avengers: Endgame' Leads Nickelodeon's Kids' Choice Awards Nominations; Chance The Rapper Set As Host

<https://deadline.com/2020/02/avengers-end-game-leads-nickelodeons-kids-choice-awards-nominations-billie-eilish-taylor-swift-chance-the-rapper-full-list-1202859259/>

Avengers: Endgame leads the 2020 Nickelodeon Kids' Choice Awards nominations announced Thursday with 11, followed by Taylor Swift with five noms and Frozen 2, Henry Danger and Lil Nas X with four each. Grammy-winning Chance the Rapper has been tapped to host the awards, which honor kids' favorite stars across film, TV, music, sports and more. The ceremony will be broadcast live on Nickelodeon on Sunday, March 22 at 7:30 PM ET/PT from the Forum in Inglewood, CA.

Making the list of nominees for favorite kids TV show are A Series of Unfortunate Events, All That, Bunk'd, Henry Danger, Power Rangers Beast Morphers and Raven's Home.

FAVORITE KIDS TV SHOW

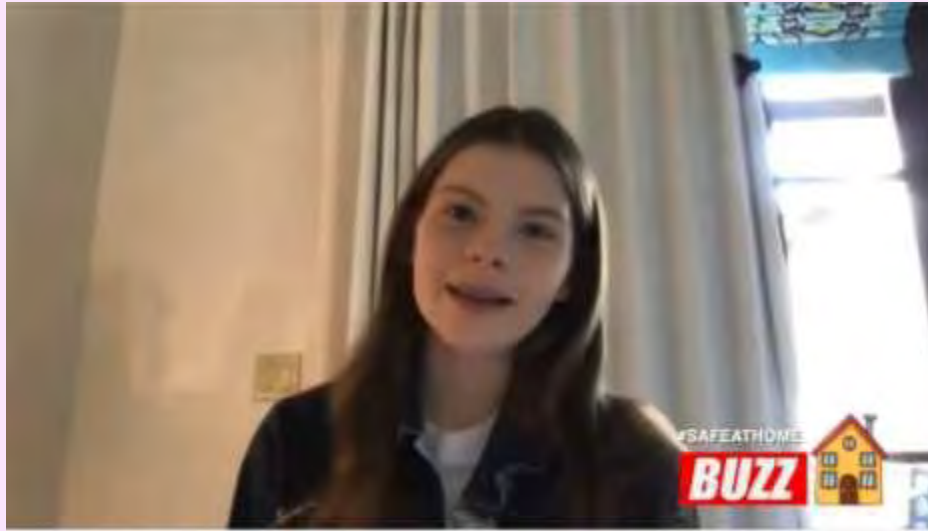

A Series of Unfortunate Events
All That BUNK'D
Henry Danger
Power Rangers Beast Morphers
Raven's Home

On-Camera + Podcast

THE NEW MUSIC BUZZ

https://www.youtube.com/watch?time_continue=1&v=a84PI2x32oY&feature=emb_logo

May 18th, 2020

July 14, 2019

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3PeWxydMegw&feature=youtu.be>

CELEBRITY PAGE

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=oRR96kbAVpc&feature=youtu.be>

May 15th, 2020

<https://www.tvinsider.com/786338/all-that-cast-nickelodeon-reboot-premiere/>

June 13th, 2019

Cast of 'All That' on the Reboot & Working With Kenan and Kel (VIDEO)

May 29, 2019

<https://www.today.com/video/see-the-new-all-that-cast-test-their-knowledge-of-the-90s-60498501757>

May 30, 2019

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8IUhMIWi51c>

sweetly high

June 27, 2019

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nfADKGuzBbY&feature=youtu.be&t=1312>

HollyWire

July 26, 2019

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wav381dISN0>

<https://app.criticalmention.com/app/#clip/view/77eef984-d482-424f-aede-638405b88529?token=7e3ea68d-5a5f-4f5c-9892-a84987f4a1d5>

June 2019

<https://app.criticalmention.com/app/#clip/view/9236599f-1fd0-4d90-919c-4d1029f7c1d4?token=7e3ea68d-5a5f-4f5c-9892-a84987f4a1d5>

June 2019

<https://app.criticalmention.com/app/#clip/view/094ace34-4476-49c2-8ddf-044c15dc7693?token=7e3ea68d-5a5f-4f5c-9892-a84987f4a1d5>

June 2019

May 31, 2019

https://www.podomatic.com/podcasts/thisweek1/episodes/2019-05-31T10_20_24-07_00

ALL THAT new cast members
Gabrielle Green and Kate Godrey with original member Josh Server

by This Week in America with Ric Bratton

▶ 269 ⌚ 9m 28s ❤️ 0 ☁️ May 31, 2019

♡ Like

➦ Share

📌 Add to Playlist

☁️ Download Episode

