Kate Godfrey starring on the reboot of ALL THAT

The beautiful Kate Godfrey acts, sings, and dances. Having started her career at a young age, the talented actress continuously works on having confidence in herself and stars in the successful reboot of ALL THAT. With the support from those around her, Godfrey has many goals in mind and continues to strive for them every day. Full of light, we are excited to see where her journey takes her next! Tell us more about your role on ALL THAT. How has your experience been on set?

Working on All That has been a dream come true. I have discovered a passion for creating characters. I love transforming into someone who is so far off from who I actually am. My experience on set has been wonderful. I love all my cast members, and I truly feel like I am part of a family.

With the show being a reboot, what are some key things you had to do to get into this role/mindset?

All throughout the audition process, my homework was to watch old clips of the original All That. I didn't know the show was a reboot until right before I booked the job. I assumed it would be similar to All That, with the executive producers being Kel Mitchell and Kenan Thompson, but the show was called "Untitled Sketch Show" during all my auditions.

Have you always wanted to be an actress?

When I was younger, I played softball and soccer. I lived in Arizona, it was super hot, and I was never excited about playing in my games every weekend. My parents saw an audition notice for the community theatre in our neighborhood. It was in air conditioning, so I was on board. I quit softball and began acting. In my first ever show I played a dancing fork. I wore a cardboard fork on my back. I loved it. I did every single kids show at that community center until I was too old to participate. Ever since then I knew I wanted to act and perform for a living.

You are starting off your career young. So far, what are some key lessons you think you have learned?

A lesson I have learned during my career is to have confidence in yourself. I am still learning this lesson. As a comedian, trusting yourself and having confidence is extremely important. You have to make choices to be funny, but not all your choices are going to be funny. It is important to know that it is okay, and to learn from it.

What are some things you see yourself having to continue working on?

I am always working on different characters and different voices. Because All That is Sketch Comedy, we get multiple different characters every week. It is helpful if I have a repertoire of voices to choose from. I am lucky to be blessed with a unique voice, because it helps me a lot in sketch comedy.

You act, sing, and dance. How do you balance it all?

Practicing all of my hobbies is hard, but I genuinely love to do all three. Practicing acting, singing, and dancing doesn't seem like a task, but a break. If I am overwhelmed about school or work I will go in my room and sing or play the piano.

Have you written any songs? If so, what are they about? If no, what would you like to write about?

I love to write. I have written a lot of things, and I have taken a few scene writing classes. I am still improving, but writing is definitely something I would love to pursue.

Walk us a through a typical day before being on set.

Before filming and going on set, we go through a very long hair and makeup process. Depending on the sketch, we could be in Hair and Makeup for up to three hours! Although we are there for a while, it is a lot of fun. Our hair and makeup artists are very entertaining, so the time flies by. Other things I do while waiting for my makeup/hair to be done are run my lines, talk to my cast members, or go on my phone.

Who has been your biggest support as you continue on this journey?

My biggest supporters have been my family. My parents and siblings have made so many sacrifices for me to reach my goals. Without my family, I could have never booked All That.

What are some goals you hope to achieve?

I have so many goals I would like to achieve in my lifetime. I would like to be a cast member of Saturday Night Live, be in a movie, win an Emmy, an Oscar, and be on Broadway. Those are just a few! I may not get to all of them, but I will have fun trying.

Get ready, people, because Nickelodeon Opens in a new Window.'s All That Opens in a new Window. is almost back! The latest episode is set to premiere on Saturday, January 18 and, according to the cast, it's filled with hilarious new sketches.

J-14 got a chance to sit down with Kate Godfrey Opens in a new Window. from the show (which also stars Ryan Alessi Opens in a new Window., Reece Caddell Opens in a new Window., Gabrielle Nevaeh Green Opens in a new Window., Nathan Janak Opens in a new Window., Lex Lumpkin Opens in a new Window. and Chinguun Sergelen Opens in a new Window.) exclusively about the show and they spilled a lot of on set secrets! They also opened up about their audition process and experience being a part of the iconic series' reboot.

J-14: What was the audition process like for ‘All That?’ How did you land the role?

Kate Godfrey: The audition process was pretty long. I auditioned seven times, I believe. I know some of my other cast members auditioned eight or nine times. The first one I did two characters — grandma and a sports lady — and then they kept calling me back and calling me back, it was super fun and obviously nerve wracking because you don’t know what’s going to happen. Then my final audition was called “The Test” and that was pretty nerve wracking too, just because it’s called a “test” and I did that audition.

J-14: What does it feel like knowing people have been loving the reboot so much?

Kate: I just love to act, it’s like my sport. So the fact that people watch it and tune in every Saturday is really special to me.

J-14: Do you feel any pressure starring in a reboot of such an iconic show?

Kate: We definitely had some big shoes to fill because it’s just so loved and iconic. The original cast members were so welcoming, and kind. They were so helpful, it made it a lot easier

J-14: What has been your favorite sketch?

Kate: It’s really hard to pick my favorite sketch because they’re all very fun to do, but I really like “Marie Kiddo” because I get to smash and actually break things which is really fun. I like doing “Brie Back From The Dentist” because she’s super messy and I get to get covered in pudding. I get to do very messy things. It’s fun, especially when other people clean you up.

J-14: Have you ever had any sketch ideas of your own that they used in the show?

Kate: The first ever meeting we did with the writers, we told them a few sketch ideas we had and then a few characters that we already developed. For my audition I did a grandma and then they put that in a music video. For our first cast and group meeting we did a music video and I played my grandma that I did in the audition.

J-14: Can you spill any behind-the-scene secrets or stories from the All That set?

Kate: One secret that’s not really portrayed in the show is that Nathan [Janak] carries an orange. Nobody really knows why, but in the ‘90s Josh Server used to carry an apple during the musical guest performances, so in the reboot, Nathan carries an orange.

J-14: Are you close to your cast mates when the cameras stop rolling?

Kate: We're so close, we never stop hanging out with each other. We just went on break for New Year's and we were literally facetimeing every day, we're always texting. We're all pretty much best friends.

J-14: What's your favorite memory from working on the show?

Kate: When we were first announced as a cast and we were on the TODAY Show. It was fun to be with all my new friends and doing something so momentous in my life.

J-14: You've worked with a few of the original All That stars. What was that like?

Kate: It's so cool because throughout the audition process we had to watch All That sketches. By the time I got the job I knew every single sketch, I basically had them all memorized and so just to see them, they're iconic. Kel [Mitchell] Opens in a new Window., Lori Beth [Denberg] Opens in a new Window., Kenan Thompson Opens in a new Window. and Josh Server Opens in a new Window., they're really nice and very talented people.

J-14: If you could work with any one of the original 'All That' cast members that you haven't yet, who would it be?

Kate: I hope that Amanda Bynes Opens in a new Window. comes back because I loved watching her in all her sketches. That would be the top of my list.

J-14: Are there any guest stars or musical guests you really want to be on the show?

Kate: I really like Taylor Swift Opens in a new Window., so I think Taylor or Ariana [Grande] Opens in a new Window.. That would be very cool.

'All That's Kate Godfrey Teases One Of Her Fave New Characters, Reveals Her Dream Guest Star & More

‘All That’ is back with all-new episodes and the young cast is better than ever. HL spoke EXCLUSIVELY with cast member Kate Godfrey about her favorite characters, her dream guest star, and more.

Kate Godfrey is one of comedy’s talented rising stars. She’s a cast member on Nickelodeon’s All That, America’s #1 kid’s sketch comedy show. The hit ’90s series returned in 2019 with a new cast and became an instant hit once again, bringing so many laughs with every single episode. The show, which airs on Saturday, is starting the new decade off right with brand-new episodes and new characters fans are going to love.

HollywoodLife talked EXCLUSIVELY with Kate about her All That journey so far. She teased that there will be even more new musical and special guest stars in the upcoming episodes. Kate talked about finding one her “true loves” in performing comedy and working alongside her fellow cast members. She also revealed her dream All That guest star and her comedy inspirations.

What can fans expect from these next episodes?

Kate Godfrey: Fans can expect great new musical and special guest stars that have also been written into our sketches. There will be some fun music parody videos starring the All That cast.

The writers have also created many new recurring characters that I think will be iconic and our audiences are going to love.

What is your favorite skit so far and why?

Kate Godfrey: It is very hard to pick a favorite sketch. I love Marie Kiddo because I actually get to break things, I love T. Smith because I get to sing, I love Brie Back From The Dentist because she is SO messy, and I love Tammy because well she is just Tammy, what can I say?

What’s something you’ve learned about yourself as you’ve filmed this first season?

Kate Godfrey: Something I have learned about myself is I really enjoy performing comedy. I always thought I would focus on the stage, singing, and Broadway, but I have found one of my true loves in comedy. It is such a rewarding feeling when you know your comedic choice was successful.

Is there a special on-set moment that stands out to you?

Kate Godfrey: I love the moment just before we go out on stage for the live audience. The energy is intense and we are all so nervous and excited; it is always very surreal.

Aria Brooks is the newest cast member — how has it been welcoming a new actor into the mix?

Kate Godfrey: At first, I was nervous about adding a new cast member. But as soon as I met Aria I knew she was going to fit in perfectly. We are so lucky to have Aria. She is extremely talented and always makes me laugh.

What's the most challenging part about performing the sketches?

Kate Godfrey: The most challenging part of performing sketches is memorizing all the lines. We get changes every night, and only know our lines about twelve hours before we film them. It makes filming a sketch so much easier when I am confident in the memorization of my lines.

Shimmering Star Spotlight: Kate Godfrey

Each month YAYOMG! selects a Shimmering Star to spotlight. Follow along as we shine a light on girls who represent kindness, positivity, empowerment, philanthropy, drive, and confidence. They're sure to inspire you!

A new month means a new Shimmering Star, and this month we've selected the hilarious and talented Kate Godfrey!

Kate is a total scene-stealer on All That, completely embodying every character she takes on. Whether she's manically destroying everything in sight as the iconic Marie Kiddo or playing Taylor Swift's biggest (and most intense) fan, Kate's passion for comedy shines bright through it all.

When she's not working on the show, gaming with her castmates, or making music at home, Kate loves helping others. She is enthusiastic about giving back and is thrilled to be performing at the Songs St. Jude benefit concert later this month. She'll be singing alongside other talented young stars from Broadway, Nickelodeon, Disney Channel, and more in support of St. Jude's Children's Hospital.

We caught up with Kate Godfrey about her charity efforts, her dream of performing on Broadway, and all things All That!

Get to Know Kate Godfrey:

Tell us a little bit about YOU!

KATE GODFREY: I love to play the piano, guitar, and ukulele! I love anything to do with music. I also recently have liked to paint with watercolors!

Take us behind the scenes a bit. What is it like on the All That set, and what do you love most about working on the series?

KATE: Working on All That is extremely fun. My favorite part about it is performing all the wild sketches. I get to do fun things like smash my face in cake and destroy many things (cabinets, vases, walls, and more!). When I am not on set, I am usually playing video games with my cast members or getting something to eat at crafty.

Do you have a favorite sketch that you've worked on for the show?

KATE: I can't pick a favorite sketch because they are all so fun! I love Marie Kiddo because I get to actually smash things, and I love Brie because she is SO messy. I have another favorite that the world will meet on Saturday the 18th! She is very weird and funny!

Before All That, you got your start in the theater. Do you see yourself heading back to the stage in the future?

KATE: I will definitely never lose my passion for theater. I love getting to perform live on a big stage. One of my life goals has always been to be on Broadway, so hopefully I can accomplish that in the future!

How do you shine bright?

KATE: At my high school, we were required to volunteer 30-40 hours a semester at the charity of your choice. It's hard to squeeze those hours in now working five days a week and going to school full time, but a great benefit to my job is being invited to charity events on the weekends to help raise money for various children's charities or to meet children that are fans of the show. Any chance to bring a smile to a sick child's face is so heartwarming and a privilege to me. One of my favorite

The women who inspire me are...

KATE: Kate McKinnon, Ellen DeGeneres, Zendaya, and my mom!

I am most passionate about...

KATE: I am most passionate about comedy, acting, and singing. I love to do all three things so much!

I feel most confident when...

KATE: When I am in front of the camera!

My biggest dream is...

KATE: I have a lot of big dreams. I would like to be on SNL one day, or maybe get into writing sketches or songs.

The advice I want to share with other girls...

KATE: The advice I want to share with other girls is to work hard, but don't forget to have fun too! My second grade teacher always said, "Hard work, Done well, Feels good." I have lived by it ever since.

Exclusive ‘All That’ Star Kate Godfrey Spills On Playing Justin Bieber For ‘Yummy’ Sketch

May 15, 2020 4:00 pm

By J-14 Staff

Get ready to laugh out loud because Kate Godfrey totally transformed into Justin Bieber for an All That sketch and she looks exactly like the singer! From his iconic tattoos to the pink buzz cut and everything in between, we can't recognize the 15-year-old actress in this hilarious "Yummy" parody video.

In honor of the show's new episode (which premieres on Saturday, May 16 at 8:30 P.M EST on Nickelodeon), the star just spilled all the tea exclusively to J-14 about what it was like portraying such an iconic musician, her favorite songs by the crooner and even shared some behind-the-scenes set secrets!

J-14: What was it like portraying Justin Bieber? Was it hard?

Kate Godfrey: Portraying Justin Bieber was SO fun. I really like when I get to play a boy on the show because it is literally the farthest away from my real personality that you could get. It definitely had its challenges, but it was the most fun I have ever had while filming a sketch.

J-14: Are you a fan of his?

Kate: I am a big fan of Justin Bieber!! Who isn't a fan right?

J-14: What's your favorite Justin Bieber song?

Kate: Right now I really like “Intentions,” and I love his new song with Ariana Grande, “Stuck With U.” But I mean, an OG JB song, is “As Long As You Love Me.”

J-14: Did you feel any pressure or nerves taking on someone so big and popular?

Kate: I definitely had some nerves about that, but I worked really hard with our acting coach Anthony LeBlanc, he was super helpful.

J-14: What was your first reaction when you found out you were going to play him in a skit?

Kate: I was beyond excited because for some weird reason I just love doing impressions of boys. And this is not just any regular boy, its JB!

J-14: Tell us a little about the physical transformation — was it hard being turned into the singer?

Kate: The hardest part was the tattoos. Justin Bieber has full sleeves of tattoos. But dont worry! The tattoos our makeup artist, Michael Johnson, used, were temporary. However, they were super hard to get off

J-14: How did you prepare for the role? Did you study up on his music videos?

Kate: I think I watched the original Yummy music video about 50 times, and I watched basically every recent Justin Bieber video. Even videos of him getting chased down by paparazzi.

J-14: Do you and your ‘All That’ costars get along when cameras stop rolling?

Kate: Yes! We are so so close. Like many friend groups, being in quarantine has been hard for us because we miss each other so much!

J-14: Can you share any fun behind-the-scenes memories or stories from on set?

Kate: During one of the sketches, “Detective Dan and Ann,” there was a cat. The cat was originally grey, but during our rehearsal the cat scratched Ryan Alessi and the cat was fired! Who knew you could fire a cat, haha!”

J-14: What is your favorite skit you’ve ever acted in?

Kate: I think the “Yummy” music video takes the cake. The dancers were so kind and supportive and I really enjoyed their vibe. One of my favorite directors to work with is Jonathan Judge, so I was really lucky that he directed the video.

Belieber Kate Godfrey Stars As Justin Bieber In 'Yummy' Parody On 'All That' - Sneak Peek Video!

Kate Godfrey steps into Justin Bieber's shoes for an all new parody for All That!

The young actress performed a new version of his comeback single “Yummy”, where “Justin” sings an ode to school hot lunches and his gratitude for the ladies who serve them.

JJJ spoke to Kate about getting the chance to play Justin Bieber in a sketch.

“Playing Justin Bieber was definitely one of my favorite characters I have played on All That. Ever since I was little I have loved listening to Justin Bieber, but I definitely never thought I would get to do an impression of him,” Kate dished. “I watched the original “Yummy” music video about 50 times to study his movements and facial expressions.”

“My favorite part about filming this sketch was learning the dance,” she added. “The dancers who were in the video were so kind and supportive, and they made the sketch even more fun to film. Chris Judd, who choreographed the video, is always really fun to work with.”

Other sketches featured in the episode include: Coach Kreeton (Kel Mitchell) teaches ping pong; the kids get trapped in a never ending TikTok dance; Tammy TMI is interviewed on live television; and a new way to get ready for the day: the Human Car Wash. The episode also features a performance by Lauv of his hit song “El Tejano.”

Tune in to watch “Yummy” and more sketches in an all new All That THIS Saturday (May 16) at 8:30pm ET/PT on Nickelodeon!

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW

MAY 14, 2020 5:19PM EDT

‘All That’s Kate Godfrey Reveals How She Transformed Into Justin Bieber For ‘Yummy’ Parody

‘All That’ star Kate Godfrey is playing the one and only Justin Bieber in an epic ‘Yummy’ music video parody that will air during the May 16 episode. HL spoke with Kate about the transformation process and more!

Get ready to do a double-take! All That cast member Kate Godfrey will be playing Justin Bieber in the May 16 episode of the Nickelodeon sketch series. Kate will star in a music video parody of Justin’s hit song “Yummy.” The All That version takes place in a school cafeteria. Some of the lyrics have been changed, and this version will bring on all the laughs. Kate looks exactly like Justin, complete with a bright pink wig and a matching sweatshirt. HollywoodLife talked with Kate about impersonating one of the biggest pop stars in the world.

“I was SO excited. I really love playing boys because I can make choices that I would never be able to make with any of my other characters. I was excited to see what the writers had planned,” Kate told HollywoodLife. To prepare for the “Yummy” parody, Kate admitted that she watched the original video “so many times to study his movements and facial expressions. I watched his interviews, performances, and his dancing. I had to make sure my actions weren’t too feminine because that’s all I know.”

The 16-year-old revealed that her favorite part about filming the parody was “how nice and supportive the dancers were. They had such a good vibe! They were really fun to laugh with. I also loved doing the dance. Chris Judd choreographed the music video, and he killed it.”

Kate already has an idea about another Justin Bieber video parody she could do in the future. “The writers for All That never fail to amaze me, so I would have to see what they have in mind! Maybe Justin Bieber and Ariana Grande, played by Nathan Janak, could do a parody on the new song they just released.” We’d be down for All That’s take on “Stuck With U!” All That airs Saturdays at 8:30 p.m. on Nickelodeon.

THE ALL THAT GIRLS' GUIDE TO HAVING FUN WITH YOUR FRIENDS!

Kate Godfrey, Gabrielle Nevaeh Green and Reece Caddell share their best ideas!

THEIR FRIENDSHIP'S ALL THAT!
These girls are more than just cast-mates — they're besties, too!

THEY HAVE INSIDE JOKES!
"Kate has a little awkward dance she calls her 'awko-tao dance' that she does when she's nervous or excited, and now we all do it!" Reece dishes.

THEY HAVE THE SAME TASTES!
"After our live shows on Friday nights, we love to go to McDonald's and eat chicken nuggets," Kate says.

THEY TALK ALL THE TIME!
"We text each other, like, 24/7 when we're not filming," Gabrielle tells us. "It's kind of crazy! It doesn't matter if it's only been a day since we've seen each other, or a month."

RAID YOUR CLOSET "MINUTE TO WIN IT" STYLE!
"You only have a minute to pick a cute outfit from your closet," Kate gives the rules. "The outfits can have different genres like fancy, casual and beach day!"
PLAY HIDE-AND-SEEK!
"I love this game because it's easy and it's very fun to play with a group of your friends!" Kate reveals.
SET UP A DOMINO RUN!
That's when you place dominoes in a big formation or line and then make them all fall down. "It might take a while, but it ends up being so cool!" the actress assures us.
TRY TRAMPOLINE GAMES!
"Put balloons on your trampoline and jump," she suggests. "When it's warm out, you can even use water balloons. This is so fun to do with a big group!"
DO THE SMOOTHIE CHALLENGE!
How? "Set up a bowl filled with papers that have ingredients — good or bad — written on them, then draw from the bowls. Whatever you pick, you have to put in your smoothie," Kate explains.

KATE

What it's like to be friends with Kate:

Gabby says "She's by far the best secret-keeper and listener."

Reece says "Kate is the kind of friend I would call when I need to be cheered up."

GABRIELLE

What it's like to be friends with Gabby:

Kate says "Gabby is the friend who I can talk to about anything."

Reece says "I call her whenever I need advice about something."

HAVE A SPA DAY!
"A spa day with your gal pals is just the thing you need to unwind, while still having a good time!" Gabrielle says.
BUILD AN EPIC FORT!
"We have a 'That Cave' on set," Gabby shares. "It's in Kate's dressing room closet. We lined the walls and ceiling with string lights and covered the floor with fuzzy blankets and fluffy pillows. It's the ultimate hangout spot!"
HOST A GAME NIGHT!
"You and your friends can play store-bought ones or make up your own. Reece, Kate and I love playing games on set!" she dishes.
START A PILLOW FIGHT!
"This one is a classic for a good reason," the star jokes. "I've always loved having pillow fights with my friends. Just be careful!"
GET IN THE HOLIDAY SPIRIT!
Gabby thinks it's never too early to start celebrating the holidays with pals! "They're always right around the corner, and there's no better way to celebrate than making DIY ornaments," she smiles.

REECE

What it's like to be friends with Reece:

Gabby says "She has the perfect blend of silliness and caring-ness."

Kate says "Reece is the friend who I can always count on for a good laugh."

HAVE AN OUTDOOR MOVIE NIGHT!
"Project the movie onto a sheet!" Reece suggests. And that's not all you need! The actress also suggests making themed snacks to go with the movie.
PUT ON A FASHION SHOW!
"I started doing this with my friends when I was little," she remembers. "Have someone be the announcer to describe the looks and don't forget to take photos."
FILM YOUR OWN MUSIC VIDEO!
"It's very cool to learn how to shoot and edit your own project," Reece smiles. "I need to do this with Kate and Gabby pronto! Kate is an amazing singer and Gabby has awesome dance moves."
MAKE SLIME!
"My favorite is cloud slime, but it's cool that there are so many different kinds you can make," she says. "Kate is our resident slime expert!"
GO BOWLING!
Bowling is a classic activity the whole All That cast loves. "I am definitely the worst bowler of our group, but I always have fun," Reece laughs.

"All That," a "Saturday Night Live"-like comedy sketch series for kids, originally captivated kids' attention on Nickelodeon from 1994-2016. But this time, there's a revival of "All That" for the new generation coming to Nick on Saturday, June 15, and a 15-year-old Scottsdale native is part of the cast.

Kate Godfrey's first role was in "Beauty and The Beast" as a dancing fork at the Homestead Playhouse in DC Ranch when she was 9 years old. So that means she's a triple threat: She can act, dance and sing. She also starred in Arizona Theatre Company's "Fiddler on the Roof" and she played teen Fiona in "Shrek The Musical" at 5-Star Theatricals in Thousand Oaks, California. She decided to pursue a career in L.A., where her adventures took her to "All That" auditions. See what Kate Godfrey has to say about working with the original "All That" cast including Kenan Thompson, Lori Beth Denberg, Kel Mitchell and Josh Server, portraying comedic roles and meeting the Jonas Brothers.

Question: Had you watched any of the original "All That" episodes before getting the role?

Answer: Before I got the roll I actually saw a little bit of "The Amanda Show," and when I was auditioning for the show, they didn't know what it was called yet. It was called "Untitled Sketch Show," but they said watch "All That" for reference. So during the audition process, I actually watched a lot of "All That" even though I didn't know it was going to be that.

Q: How are you guys approaching the show differently this time around?

A: It's basically the exact same "All That" except it has a modern twist on it and a new cast and we're still having original cast members. They have cameos here and there, it's really great.

Q: Speaking of the original cast, what was it like working with them?

A: They are so sweet and supportive, and it's really nice to know that they're supporting us because they were in our shoes in the '90s. And so to know that we can ask them for advice or if we need any help with anything or if we had any questions, we can ask them and they'll happily answer them. It's really nice to know that.

Q: One of the early musical guests for "All That" is the Jonas Brothers. Did you get to meet them?

A: Yes, I did get to meet them. I actually was lucky enough to get to do a scene with them, and it was so crazy. They're so sweet. And yeah, they basically look exactly how they look on TV. I watched them a lot when I was growing up and it's very cool to know that they are back together as well. And doing a scene with them was very surreal. I got to do a Good Burger sketch with them.

Q: What are you most excited for people to see?

A: I'm excited for them to see all the crazy sketches because we definitely do a lot of crazy things. ... I play Marie Kiddo. It's actually on YouTube. And I got to destroy a cabinet and a ton of other stuff.

It was so much fun to film. I was a little nervous smashing the glass cabinet. Because they kept saying, "If you get glass in your shoes, stop and tell us to hold and we'll hold." And then I was like, "Wait? I'm going to get glass in my shoes?" But it was really fun.

Q: How do you handle comedic roles?

A: I think just going for it and having no fear. And being OK with the fact that the choices you make might not always be funny, but in order to be funny you have to make choices. So you really just have to trust yourself and be confident in what you're doing. Right now basically anything we film I think is so funny. All this stuff has been hilarious. I don't know how the writers do it. Every little thing is so funny. Even if it doesn't make it to camera and it just makes it to a table reading.

Q: This show looks like it has a lot of costumes. What was that like?

A: We have a ton of fun costumes. Our hair and makeup and wardrobe team are so amazing and all the costumes blow me away. Sitting in the hair and makeup chair sometimes takes longer than it actually takes to film the sketch. They make it look perfect, and the makeup is amazing, the hair is amazing. They're super articulate wigs. It's amazing how much work goes into a two minute sketch.

Q: So according to your IMDb page, your first role was a dancing fork?

A: Yes, I decided to try theater and I was really nervous. ... I just wanted to get out of the heat because you know it's very hot in Arizona. And I didn't like sports. So my mom was like, "The Homestead is doing 'Beauty and The Beast.' Want to try out?" And I was like, "Yeah, I guess so."

I remember that for the audition process I was so nervous. I think I had to sing and I had to pretend to be a clock. I remember that oddly weird detail, but I don't know why I remember pretending to be a clock. And then I was a cardboard fork.

Q: Being from Scottsdale, how has experience here helped with your career?

A: I think most everything I got in Arizona is so helpful to me right now. You can't just go into this having no training. Even my role as a dancing fork at the Homestead helped me and prepared me for this. And also Arizona Theatre Company. Just performing on stage definitely prepared me for this. Every Friday we have live audiences, so I think theater training really helped me.

Q: I know it's summer break right now, but is it tough to balance school and work?

A: It's pretty hard. You definitely have to work harder than other kids who don't act and don't have a full-time job. We do school on set for three hours. At the most we do five hours, but sometimes we do one to five hours of school a day. You just have to work harder than other kids that aren't in the industry. And you have to keep in mind that education is just as important as your job.

Meet the Cast of Nickelodeon's All That Reboot

The teens, ages 12 to 15, will introduce original comedic sketches, new characters and impersonations of today's popular celebrities
By Christina Dugan

This is All That!

The cast for Nickelodeon's All That has just been announced — and PEOPLE has the first look at the superstar teens who will be starring in the highly anticipated reboot.

Introducing Reece Caddell, Chinguun Sergelen, Gabrielle Green, Nathan Janak, Kate Godfrey, Ryan Alessi, and Lex Lumpkin!

The teens, ages 12 to 15, will introduce original comedic sketches, new characters and impersonations of today's popular celebrities. Each new episode of the reboot will also feature a musical performance from today's top artists and guest stars from the worlds of TV, film, comedy and more. Earlier this month, Nickelodeon announced that the Jonas Brothers will close the June 15 premiere with a rendition of their smash hit "Sucker" after All That alumni Kel Mitchell, Kenan Thompson, Lori Beth Denberg and Josh Server make appearances with the new cast of teens.

Mitchell, who will also serve as executive producer alongside Thompson, said that being back on the All That set was "emotional" and "surreal."

"For us to see the new kids going through what we went through and experiencing the beginning and know what's to come for them — it's so cool to see their faces experiencing it all," Mitchell, 40, told PEOPLE. "I'm excited that I'm there to give advice. God made me ready for this."

"Know who you are and know that this is job," he added. "Know that you're going to work. The show is not the thing that makes you special. You're already special. I wanted them to know that you are already special."

The highly anticipated premiere episode will open with Mitchell, Denberg, 43, and Server, 40, imparting advice and words of wisdom to the new cast. And while Thompson, 41, won't be featured, he will be paying forward what he learned from his time on the show in the early 90s.

"[All That] really taught me what I was put here to do," said Thompson. "I always knew I wanted to be an actor but I didn't really know what that meant. It really taught me how to be a professional, how to play the camera ... it taught me everything."

In February, Nickelodeon announced the return of the sketch comedy show, set to feature cameos from the original cast.

'All That's New Cast Reveals The Reboot' Stays True To The Original' Show & More

Get ready for major throwback vibes. Nickelodeon's 'All That' is back with a brand-new cast. HL spoke EXCLUSIVELY with the new cast about the highly-anticipated reboot, working together, and more.

Nickelodeon's new version of the legendary sketch comedy series, All That, returns June 15 at 8:30 p.m. The new All That will feature a brand-new cast that includes Ryan Alessi, Reece Caddell, Kate Godfrey, Gabrielle Green, Nathan Janak, Lex Lumpkin, and Chinguun Sergelen. The premiere will feature appearances by original cast members Kel Mitchell, Lori Beth Denberg, and Josh Server. All That is also executive produced by original cast member Kenan Thompson. The Jonas Brothers will be performing their song "Sucker" during the premiere.

The reboot is perfect for fans of the original show who love nostalgia, as well as the new generation. HollywoodLife sat down EXCLUSIVELY with the new cast members to talk about all things All That. The young actors revealed their adorable reactions after they learned they had been cast in the reboot.

They also opened up about how much they love working together as well as what it's been like getting to know some of the original cast members. See the full Q&A below.

What was your reaction when you got the call that you were cast on the new All That?

Kate Godfrey: I think we all had the same reaction which was excited and happy. I cried. I was so happy. No words. It was amazing.

Nathan Janak: I cried as well and Chinguun can vouch for me that I was literally bawling because when I found out I was on the side of the street. We just got out of the test, the final stage of the audition, and so I got the call 20 minutes after that. We were still getting an Uber to go back home and I was just crying so badly.

Chinguun Sergelen: I was at The Grove when I got the call and I was running around the waterfalls that they had. I was crying, as was Nathan.

Gabrielle Green: When I got the call I was very, very sick. I was sweating. I had a very bad headache, I remember, but I was home with my aunt. My mom called and she conferenced me in with my agent and manager and my agent goes, "Hey, I know you're sick, but you know what the best cure for a cold is?" I was like, "What?" My agent said, "You booked All That." The headache and everything, the sweat, was just gone. I got up and I just started running around the room and then the call dropped and I was so upset. I kept calling my mom back saying, "Conference me back in, conference me back in." But she handled it.

Ryan Alessi: My story is not as interesting as their story, but I was driving out of a Best Buy. My mom was there and our manager told us that she wouldn't call us. She'd only call us if she had any news about the show and her number was on my mom's phone. So my manager, my agent, and I are on a three-way call and they said, "Guess what? You booked All That." My mom and I went absolutely crazy.

Lex Lumpkin: When I got the call, I was out front of a commercial audition and I was super happy. I was in shock didn't say anything because I wasn't sure if they had gotten the information right. When I got the role I was super happy, super excited, and pumped.

It's been a long time since the '90s when we first saw All That. With this new cast and reboot, is it different from the original show or does the heart of the show stay the same?

Lex Lumpkin: I feel that the new reboot still stays true to the original, but it's more modernized with new kids and it still brings back some of the old sketches and the original cast.

Nathan Janak: It's the same old All That with a brand-new cast. It's classic sketches, the same type of comedy, with an all-new cast and maybe some even old cast members, too.

What was it like for you all to work with some of the original All That cast members?

Gabrielle Green: Just getting to work with them is such an honor. They constantly are making sure we're comfortable with everything and making sure we understand everything. They're just like our big brothers and sisters and second parents. It's so amazing. Getting to go to work every day, you can't be sad with Kel Mitchell in the room because he's always like, "Hey guys, what's up?" So if you're having a bad day, Kel's the guy to call for sure. He's always giving us advice and always reminding us that this show is not what makes you special. You were born special.

Kate Godfrey: They're just so supportive. Since they were in our same shoes in the '90s, they know what it's like and they're giving us a bunch of advice. It's very helpful especially because we're all new at this and we've never shot something this big before.

Ryan Alessi: Overall, Nickelodeon has just been super awesome to us. The production's great. Every single person plays a part in making this project so good and perfect and making sure the cast is happy and making sure the writers are happy. It's super awesome that we've become a family. We're hanging out with each other all day, every day.

What's it like working with each other?

Reece Caddell: Working with this cast is probably one of the most amazing things I've ever done. They are so supportive because they know exactly what we're doing and they have the same feelings because we're all in this together.

Gabrielle Green: We all love each other. I think I speak for everyone when I say these are some of the best friends that I've ever had in my entire life. I really trust these people and that's really hard for me because I don't trust people a lot, but we've really built a strong community, including Kel, Lori Beth, Josh, and all the OGs. We're really tight and that's really important in this kind of show because with all the improv and all the sketch comedy characters, you really have to trust each other.

Nathan Janak: To add on what everyone said, we really all just love working together whether it's off-screen or on-screen. We just have a personal chemistry and connection with one another. It's just a magical thing. I'm so grateful that I get to work with you guys and that we all have this opportunity. Y'all are just the bestest friends in the entire world.

Ryan Alessi: We're sort of like the cast of Friends, just like sketch comedy this time.

All That* has been had so many fans since it premiered 25 years ago. What do you think makes fans keep loving All That after all these years?

Lex Lumpkin: I think what makes the fans love All That, specifically, is because of all the new sketches each week. There are new characters and the cast never holds back. They love what they do. They're always going full-on to make the people laugh and it's awesome that the cast just loves doing what they're doing and making people laugh.

Nathan Janak: I think the all-new All That is going to make some of the people who watched it back in the '90s feel like a kid again watching it on their screen because it really is, like we've all said before, the same type of comedy.

Ryan Alessi: It's the same two writers, Kevin Kopelow and Heath Seifert. They were writers for the old All That, too. Plus, they have some new amazing writers that have come on and it's just a really talented group of people.
